Collect

God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

A reading from Exodus

Exodus 19. 2 - 8a

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 100

1. O be joyful in the Lord all ye lands:

serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

2. Be ye sure that the Lord he is God:

it is he that hath made us and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

3. O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise:

be thankful unto him and bless his holy name.

4. For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting:

and his faithfulness endureth from generation to generation.

A reading from Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans

Romans 5. 1 - 8

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Matthew.

Matthew 9. 35 - 10. 8

Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

We have a gospel to proclaim,
Good news for all throughout the earth,
The gospel of a Saviour's name:
We sing his glory, tell his worth.

Tell of his birth at Bethlehem,
Not in a royal house or hall,
But in a stable dark and dim:
The Word made flesh, a light for all.

Tell of his death at Calvary,
Hated by those he came to save,
In lonely suffering on the cross:
For all he loved, his life he gave.

Tell of that glorious Easter morn,
Empty the tomb, for he was free:
He broke the power of death and hell
That we might share his victory.

Tell of his reign at God's right hand,
By all creation glorified:
He sends his Spirit on his Church,
To live for him, the Lamb who died.

Now we rejoice to name him King:
Jesus is Lord of all the earth.
This gospel message we proclaim;
We sing his glory, tell his worth.

Words: Edward Burns (b.1938)
Fulda (William Gardiner in Sacred Melodies 1815)

OFFERTORY HYMN

Who would true valour see
Let him come hither,
One here will constant be,
Come wind, come weather;
There's no discouragement
Shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent
To be a pilgrim.

Who so beset him round
With dismal stories,
Do but themselves confound
His strength the more is.
No lion can him fright,
He'll with a giant fight:
But he will have the right
To be a pilgrim.

Hobgoblin nor foul fiend
Can daunt his Spirit,
He knows he at the end
Shall life inherit.
Then, fancies, flee away;
He'll fear not what men say,
He'll labour night and day
To be a pilgrim.

Words: John Bunyan (1628-88) & Percy Dearmer (1867-1936)

Tune: Monk's Gate (Adapted from an English folk song by R. Vaughan Williams 1872-1958)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

‘The kingdom is upon you!’
the voice of Jesus cries,
fulfilling with its message
the wisdom of the wise;
it lightens with fresh insight
the striving human mind,
creating new dimensions
of faith for all to find.

‘God’s kingdom is upon you!’
the message sounds today,
it summons every pilgrim
to take the questing way,
with eyes intent on Jesus,
our leader and our friend,
who trod faith’s road before us,
and trod it to the end.

The kingdom is upon us!
stirred by the Spirit’s breath,
we glory in its freedom
from emptiness and death;
we celebrate its purpose,
its mission and its goal,
alive with the conviction that Christ can make us whole.

Words: Robert Willis (b. 1947)

Tune: Wolvercote (William Harold Ferguson 1872 - 1950)

ADVANCE NOTICES

The Annual Rainbow Fair will take place on Friday 30th June from 6:00 - 8:00 pm on the Cathedral Green. There will be stalls, games and activities, drinks and refreshments, music, dancing, the ever popular donkey rides and, hopefully, a fire engine. In addition, this year we will have a licenced summer drinks stall and a change from the usual fancy dress competition to "the best dressed owner and dog" as part of a novelty dog show. If you would like to enter the Dog Show please contact Sue Valenton on 07804 640152 for categories and registration details. Please come along and join in the fun. Anyone wishing to run a stall or game or activity please contact Judith Thompson on 029 2055 1836 or any member of the Social Committee.

The Rev'd Edward Le Brun Powell - The Dean is pleased to announce that he and Canon Graham Holcombe are to receive a new colleague. Fr Edward Le Brun Powell will join us as Assistant Curate with effect from the end of this month. Fr Edward will be ordained priest on 24th June here at the Cathedral at 10.30am, you are most welcome to attend. Fr Edward will preside for the first time at a celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 3.30pm on Sunday 25th June. I hope therefore, that as many of you as possible will come to support him on this special occasion, as he presides for the first time. It will be an important milestone in the commencement of his ministry.

Friends Festival Dinner - Saturday 8th July - A drinks reception and 3 course roast turkey dinner, with vegetarian/gluten free alternative is being held at St Michael's College as part of the Friends Festival Weekend.

If you would like to join us on this special occasion, please apply now as numbers are limited.

Tickets at £25 each are available from Linda Quinn, 74 Pencisely Rd CF5 1DH. Cheques payable to Friends of Llandaff Cathedral. SAE please.

Christian Aid Week 2017- What A Result - The final total for the amount raised in Christian Aid Week is a magnificent £12, 379.47!

And to this can be added a very generous one-off anonymous donation of £4,000 giving a grand total of £16,379.47. Of this, over £10,500 was Gift Aided, thus benefitting CA by a further £2,600. And CAF cheques (which we can't count in our total) came to a further £385. The exact figures are displayed on the CA table at the back of the Cathedral.

Many, many thanks to our house to house collectors (£7717) plus an individual collection at Howells School (£29), to the City School (£1907), to the Sunday School (£174), to Busy Bees Nursery (£122) and to everyone who supported the activities and collections at the Cathedral during the week (£2430).

What a wonderful result - a real sign of our community concern for the world beyond our doors. Thank you all so much. Sue Smith and the CA Team.
