Sunday 24th September 2017: THE SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (TRINITY 15)

Collect

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love: grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the gospel that, always abiding in you, they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Jonah

Jonah 3.10 - 4.11

When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it. But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. He prayed to the Lord and said, 'O Lord! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing. And now, O Lord, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.' And the Lord said, 'Is it right for you to be angry?' Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city. The Lord God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush. But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, 'It is better for me to die than to live.' But God said to Jonah, 'Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?' And he said, 'Yes, angry enough to die.' Then the Lord said, 'You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labour and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 145(vv.1 - 8)

1 I will exalt thee O God my King:

and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I give thanks unto thee:

and praise thy I name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord, and marvellous worthy, to be praised:

his greatness is past searching out.

4 One generation shall praise thy works unto another:

and shall declare thy power.

5 As for me I will be talking of the glorious brightness of thy majesty:

and of all thy wondrous works.

6 Men shall speak of the might of thy marvellous I acts:

and I will also tell of thy greatness.

7 The memory of thine abundant kindness shall ever be on their lips:

and men shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious and merciful:

long-suffering and of great I goodness.

A reading from St Paul's Letter to the Philippians

Philippians 1. 21 - 30

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labour for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again. Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well—since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Matthew.

Matthew 20. 1 - 16

Glory to you, O Lord.

For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the labourers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place; and he said to them, "You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right." So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, "Why are you standing here idle all day?" They said to him, "Because no one has hired us." He said to them, "You also go into the vineyard." When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, "Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first." When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, "These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat." But he replied to one of them, "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?" So the last will be first, and the first will be last.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

All creatures of our God and King lift up your voice and with us sing

Alleluia, alleluia.

Thou burning sun with golden beam,
thou silver moon with softer gleam,

*O praise him, O praise him,
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.*

Thou rushing wind that art so strong,
ye clouds that sail in heaven along,

O praise him, alleluia.

Thou rising morn, in praise rejoice,
ye lights of evening, find a voice;

Chorus

Thou flowing water, pure and clear,
make music for thy Lord to hear,

Alleluia, alleluia.

Thou fire so masterful and bright,
that givest man both warmth and light:

Chorus

Dear mother earth, who day by day
unfoldest blessings on our way,

O praise him, alleluia.

the flowers and fruits that in thee grow,
let them his glory also show:

Chorus

Let all things their Creator bless,
and worship him in humbleness;

O praise him, alleluia.

Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son,
and praise the Spirit, Three in One;

Chorus

Words: William Henry Draper (1855-1933) based on Laudato sii, O me signore St Francis of Assisi's Canticum of the Sun

Music: LASST UNS ERFREUEN Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

OFFERTORY HYMN

We hail thy presence glorious,
O Christ our great high priest,
O'er sin and death victorious,
At thy thanksgiving feast:
As thou art interceding
For us in heaven above,
Thy Church on earth is pleading
Thy perfect work of love.

Through thee in every nation
Thine own their hearts upraise,
Offering one pure oblation,
One sacrifice of praise:
With thee in blest communion
The living and the dead
Are joined in closest union,
One body with one head.

O living Bread from heaven,
Jesu, our Saviour good,
Who thine own self hast given
To be our souls' true food;
For us thy body broken
Hung on the cross of shame:
This bread, its hallowed token,
We break in thy dear name.

O stream of love unending,
Poured from the one true vine,
With our weak nature blending
The strength of life divine;
Our thankful faith confessing
In thy life-blood outpoured,
We drink this cup of blessing
And praise thy name, O Lord.

Words: Richard Parsons (1882-1948)
Music: OFFERTORIUM Michael Haydn (1737-1806)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Teach me, my God and King,
In all things thee to see,
And what I do in anything,
To do it as for thee.

A man that looks on glass
On it may stay his eye;
Or if he pleaseth, through it pass,
And then the heaven espy.

All may of thee partake:
Nothing can be so mean,
Which with this tincture, 'For thy sake'
Will not grow bright and clean.

A servant with this clause
Makes drudgery divine;
Who sweeps a room, as for thy laws,
Makes that and the action fine.

This is the famous stone
That turneth all to gold;
For that which God doth touch and own
Cannot for less be told.

Words: George Herbert (1593-1633 NS)
Music: SANDYS from W. Sandy's Christmas Carols (1833)

ADVANCE NOTICES

Friends Open Doors Days: 293 people participated in the various events organised by the Friends of the Cathedral for Open Doors Llandaff last weekend. A further 63 people came just to look around, with comments such as:

'We used to live on the Green and haven't been back in 30 years.' and 'I've lived here all my life and never been inside.' and 'It was really great to hear the recital.' Opportunities to look closer at the organ, climb the bell tower and look at the archives were all popular and the guided tour resulted in people asking if they could come again. The schools drawing event was very well received, with teachers saying how nice it was for the children to be able to walk around informally and draw pictures of what they liked best. All four primary schools in the Parish came this year, and all said they would like to come again next year. Many people came as a result of reading the leaflets delivered by Parishioners - many thanks for this help to you all. Open Doors is an excellent opportunity for outreach, welcoming people who we may otherwise never see.

The Christian Aid Table is Changing: This is the "Low" season for Christian Aid, so in the interim the table has been replaced by a new "Charities" table. This celebrates our Parish and Cathedral's work to alleviate poverty and suffering in our local community and beyond, with the emphasis on our efforts as a community to care for the poor and dispossessed. If there are any projects we have missed, please let us know; we'd be delighted to add those to the display. And...you may be interested to know that the "tablecloth" is produced in Hebron by the only remaining textile factory in the Holy Land still making this traditional design. Sue Smith 02920 569234/
