New worshippers are especially welcome and are invited to make themselves known to the clergy

Collect

God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

A reading from the Book Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy 5. 12-15

Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 81(vv1-10)

- 1 Sing ye merrily unto God our strength:
raise a cheerful shout unto the God of Jacob.
- 2 Take the psaltery, bring hither the timbrel:
the merry harp with the lute.
- 3 Blow the trumpet in the new moon:
and at the full moon on our solemn feast-day.
- 4 For this was made a statute for Israel:
and a law of the God of Jacob.
- 5 This he laid upon Joseph for a testimony:
when he came out of the land of Egypt.
- 6 'I eased his shoulder from the burden:
and his hands were set free from bearing the load.
- 7 'Thou calledst upon me in trouble, and I delivered thee:
I answered thee in the thunder-cloud, but put thee to the test at the waters of Meribah.
- 8 'Hear O my people, and I will admonish thee:
O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me,
- 9 'There shall no strange god be in thee:
neither shalt thou worship any other god.
- 10 'I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt:
open thy mouth wide and I shall fill it.'

A reading from the Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians

2 Corinthians 4. 5-12

For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness', who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Mark.

Mark 2.23-3.6

Glory to you, O Lord.

One sabbath he was going through the cornfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, 'Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?' And he said to them, 'Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions.' Then he said to them, 'The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.'

Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, 'Come forward.' Then he said to them, 'Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?' But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, 'Stretch out your hand.' He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

1.

Angel voices ever singing
round thy throne of light,
angel-harps for ever ringing,
rest not day nor night;
thousands only live to bless thee
and confess thee
Lord of might.

2.

Thou who art beyond the farthest
mortal eye can scan,
can it be that thou regardest
songs of sinful man?
can we know that thou art near us,
and wilt hear us?
yea, we can.

3.

For we know that thou rejoicest
o'er each work of thine;
thou didst ears and hands and voices
for thy praise design;
craftsman's art and music's measure
for thy pleasure
all combine.

4.

In thy house, great God, we offer
of thine own to thee;
and for thine acceptance proffer
all unworthily
hearts and minds and hands and voices
in our choicest psalmody.

5.

Honour, glory, might, and merit
thine shall ever be,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
blessed Trinity.
Of the best that thou hast given
earth and heaven
render thee.

Words: Francis Pott (1832-1909)
Music: ANGEL VOICES Edwin George Monk (1819-1900)

OFFERTORY HYMN

1.

Thy hand, O God, has guided thy flock, from age to age;
their wondrous tale is written,
full clear, on every page;
our fathers owned thy goodness,
and we their deeds record;
and both of this bear witness;
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

2.

Thy heralds brought glad tidings
to greatest as to least;
they bade men rise, and hasten
to share the great King's feast;
and this was all their teaching,
in every deed and word,
to all alike proclaiming
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

3.

Through many a day of darkness,
through many a scene of strife,
the faithful few fought bravely,
to guard the nation's life.
Their gospel of redemption,
sin pardoned, man restored,
was all in this enfolded:
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

4.

And we, shall we be faithless?
Shall hearts fail, hands hang down?
shall we evade the conflict,
and cast away our crown?
Not so: in God's deep counsels
some better thing is stored;
we will maintain, unflinching,
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

5.

Thy mercy will not fail us,
nor leave thy work undone;
with thy right hand to help us,
thy victory shall be won;
And then, by men and angels,
thy name shall be adored,
and this shall be their anthem:
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

Words: Edward Hayes Plumptre (1821-1891)
Music: THORNBURY Basil Harwood (1859-1949)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

All for Jesus! all for Jesus!
This our song shall ever be;
For we have no hope nor Saviour
if we have not hope in thee.

All for Jesus: you will give us
strength to serve thee hour by hour;
None can move us from thy presence
while we trust thy love and power.

All for Jesus! at thine altar
thou dost give us sweet content;
There, dear Saviour, we receive thee,
in thy holy sacrament.

All for Jesus! thou hast loved us,
all for Jesus! thou hast died,
all for Jesus! thou art with us,
all for Jesus, glorified.

All for Jesus, all for Jesus!
This the Church's song shall be till at last the flock is gathered,
one in love, and one in thee.

Words: William J Sparrow-Simpson (1859-1952)
Music: ALL FOR JESUS John Stainer (1840-1901)

NOTICES

Rainbow Fair: Friday 6th July 2018 - Plans for our annual Patronal Festival summer fair are nearly complete. All the usual fun activities such as the coconut shy, donkey rides, face painting, country dancing and a whole host of stalls and games will be there. Many thanks to everyone who has offered to run a stall or an activity. It is not too late if anyone is still considering taking part. Please speak to any member of the Social Committee or contact Judith Thompson on 029 2055 1836. So put the date in your diary and come along and join the fun on the Cathedral Green between 6 and 8pm.

Rainbow Fair Poster Competition - CALLING ALL YOUNG ARTISTS

The Llandaff Cathedral Social Committee would like you to design a poster for the fair on A4 sized paper, making it as colourful as possible, to include the things we expect to see at a fair e.g. bunting and balloons, stalls, games, coconut shy, dancing, donkeys etc. and also a rainbow. The posters do NOT need to have any wording on them, just the picture. But it is really important that you put your NAME and AGE on the back. There will be prizes for the winners plus a certificate for everyone who takes part. The closing date is Sunday 24th June. Prizes will be given out at the Fair on Friday 6th July. Entries can be given to Sian Connors and Kelly Sylvester at Sunday School, to Charlotte Davey, our Church Warden, or anyone on Social Committee.

Forthcoming Recitals – On Wednesday 13 June at 7pm we look forward to welcoming Bristol Cathedral's Assistant Organist Paul Walton to give an Organ Recital. This concert will feature one of the first performances of a new work by David Bednall Triptych for Herbert Howells and promises to be an occasion not to be missed. Admission is free with a retiring collection. Please do support if you can.

A message from Katharine MacDonald - It has been a privilege and a pleasure serving as the People's Warden here in Llandaff and I am grateful for the support I have received from so many of you over the years. There is no doubt that our Cathedral is a very special place which touches so many of us on our Christian journey and I have enjoyed working with the clergy and the many volunteers, who play such an essential role in supporting our community.

Thank you very much for the beautiful flowers, I received last Sunday at the Parish Service and the numerous gifts and cards which have helped to mark the end of an interesting and noteworthy chapter in my life.

I wish Charlotte every success in her new role and look forward to joining you all as a member of the congregation, whenever Ian and I are home from our travels.

God Bless you all. Katharine MacDoanld

Llandaff Parish Branch of Mothers' Union. - In the MU meeting this coming Monday 4th June, we welcome Judge Philip Price who will talk to us about 'Supporting Welsh Children with Cancer'. At this meeting we will be pleased to receive completed teddies and items for the 'Wet Bags' for the children holidaying at the Llandaff Diocesan Caravan in Porthcawl this summer. We will be collecting names of members and friends who would like to visit this caravan in July. The trip to the caravan is planned for Thursday 12th July. On Monday 18th June we are pleased to announce Canon Graham Holcombe will be our speaker. We look forward to seeing members, meeting new members and visitors at our meetings which are held in The Parish Hall starting at 2.15pm.
