Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Numbers

Numbers 11. 4-6, 10-16, 24-29

The rabble among them had a strong craving; and the Israelites also wept again, and said, 'If only we had meat to eat! We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic; but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at.' Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, all at the entrances of their tents. Then the Lord became very angry, and Moses was displeased. So Moses said to the Lord, 'Why have you treated your servant so badly? Why have I not found favour in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me? Did I conceive all this people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, "Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a sucking child", to the land that you promised on oath to their ancestors? Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they come weeping to me and say, "Give us meat to eat!" I am not able to carry all this people alone, for they are too heavy for me. If this is the way you are going to treat me, put me to death at once - if I have found favour in your sight - and do not let me see my misery.' So the Lord said to Moses, 'Gather for me seventy of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them take their place there with you. So Moses went out and told the people the words of the Lord; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent. Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again. Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. And a young man ran and told Moses, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, 'My lord Moses, stop them!' But Moses said to him, 'Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit on them!'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 19(vv.7-14)

7 The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul:

the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart:

the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever:

the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea than much fine gold:

sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant taught:

and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth:

O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me:
so shall I be undefiled and innocent of great offence.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight:
O Lord my strength and my redeemer.

A reading from the Letter of Saint James

James 5. 13-20

Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest. My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Mark.

Mark 9. 38-50

Glory to you, O Lord.

John said to him, 'Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.' But Jesus said, 'Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterwards to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward. 'If any of you put a stumbling-block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched. 'For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Through all the changing scenes of life,
in trouble and in joy,
the praises of my God shall still
my heart and tongue employ.

Of his deliverance I will boast,
till all that are distressed
from my example comfort take,
and charm their griefs to rest.

O magnify the Lord with me,
with me exalt his name;
when in distress to him I called,
he to my rescue came.

The hosts of God encamp around
the dwellings of the just;
deliverance he affords to all
who on his succour trust.

O make but trial of his love:
experience will decide
how blest are they, and only they,
who in his truth confide.

Fear him, ye saints, and you will then
have nothing else to fear;
make you his service your delight,
your wants shall be his care.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
the God whom we adore,
be glory, as it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

OFFERTORY HYMN

There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea;
there's a kindness in his justice
which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows
are more felt than up in heaven;
there is no place where earth's failings
have such kindly judgement given.

For the love of God is broader
than the measure of our mind,
and the heart of the eternal
is most wonderfully kind.
But we make his love too narrow
by false limits of our own;
and we magnify his strictness
with a zeal he would not own.

There is plentiful redemption
through the blood that has been shed;
there is joy for all the members
in the sorrows of the head.
There is grace enough for thousands
of new worlds as great as this;
there is room for fresh creations
in that upper home of bliss.

Second half of tune:

If our love were but more simple
we should take him at his word;
and our lives would be all gladness
in the joy of Christ our Lord.

Words: Frederick William Faber (1814-1863)
Music: CORVEDALE Maurice Bevan (1921-2006)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Father of heaven, whose love profound
a ransom for our souls hath found,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us thy pardoning love extend.

Almighty Son, incarnate Word,
our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us thy saving grace extend.

Eternal Spirit, by whose breath
the soul is raised from sin and death,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us thy quickening power extend.

Thrice Holy! Father, Spirit, Son;
mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
grace, pardon, life to us extend.

Words: Edward Cooper (1770-1833)
Music: RIEVAULX John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

NOTICES

Following on from their successful concert in February, Jeanne and Alex Thorndike are holding another concert to raise funds for the Cathedral Choir's forthcoming tour to Sweden. The concert is at the Cathedral on Sunday 14th October at 5pm, and will include the beautiful Four Last Songs by Strauss as well as the serene Spiegel im Spiegel by Arvo Pärt. Jeanne and Alex can be seen at most services as their two boys are Choristers. They work as musicians themselves all over the world; Jeanne as a freelance singer and singing teacher and Alex as Assistant Principal Viola with the BBC National Orchestra of Wales and Professor of Viola at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama. We would love to see as many of you as possible. Admission is free and a retiring collection will be taken.

Penrhys Pilgrimage - Today at the end of the Parish Eucharist, do join our intrepid pilgrims outside the Cathedral before they set off for the wilds of deepest Spooky Lane in Danescourt. There will be some Pilgrim Parkin cake on offer. In case you have allergies, for your information the ingredients are oats, butter, water, soft brown sugar, caster sugar, eggs, vanilla extract, bi-carb, cinnamon, sultanas, walnuts, mixed seeds, flour and diced apple. If you would like to join us, we suggest that after taking communion you leave the cathedral by St David's chapel and find your way to Prebendal House where there will be people to greet you. It will also give you a chance to let your child take a comfort break before we set out. If you are not joining us, do give us a wave and wish us Pererindod Dda.

CD Release - Following the 3.30pm Evensong this afternoon, our Director of Music will be releasing a CD of music performed on the Cathedral Organ. The CD, entitled Deo Gracias (Thanks be to God) is the first commercial recording of the organ here in Llandaff and includes works by Spicer, Whitlock, Dupré, Sowerby and Carter, as well as a piece by former Llandaff Chorister Iain Quinn. At the conclusion of Evensong Stephen will perform a 30 minute recital of a selection of tracks from the CD before the disc will be on sale for the first time, priced at £12. It will thereafter be available to buy from the Cathedral Shop but it is very much hoped as many people as possible will come to the launch this afternoon to support this important venture.

The Guild of St. Teilo - The next meeting of the Guild is on Monday 8th October in the Parish Hall when Mrs. Jean Blunn will be talking about and showing slides of her visit to the Holy Land. On Monday 22nd October Mrs. Anita Barbrook will be talking about 'Back to the Reformatory'. Our meetings are friendly and informal ending with a cup of tea and a chat. Visitors are made most welcome. Daphne Townsend 20566447

Llandaff Parish Branch Mothers' Union - There are two meetings in October, the first is tomorrow Monday 1st October when we welcome Yvonne Apsitis, who will tell us about 50+ and The Pound. On Monday 15th October we are delighted to have Diana Lambert and Oriana Choir to entertain us. We look forward to seeing regular members, new members and visitors at these meetings, held in The Parish Hall at 2.15pm. Enid Evans
