Collect

Lord of all creation, you give us the fruits of the earth in their season and crown the year with your goodness: help us so to receive your gifts with thankful hearts that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in want and to meet our daily needs; through Jesus Christ the Bread of life, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Joel

Joel 2. 21-27

Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the Lord has done great things! Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield. O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing-floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 126

- 1 When the Lord restoreth the fortunes of Zion:
then shall we be like unto them that renew their strength.
- 2 Then shall our mouth be filled with laughter:
and our tongue with shouts of joy.
- 3 Then will they say among the nations:
'The Lord hath done great things for them.'
- 4 Yea the Lord will do great things for us:
whereof we shall be glad.
- 5 Restore our fortunes O Lord:
like as when streams refresh the deserts of the south.
- 6 They that sow in tears:
shall reap with cries of joy.
- 7 He that goeth forth weeping, and taketh the seed with him:
shall come again with gladness, as he bringeth home his sheaves.

A reading from the First Letter of Saint Timothy

1 Timothy 2. 1-7

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Matthew.

Matthew 6. 25-33

Glory to you, O Lord.

‘Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, “What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?” For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

To thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise in hymns of adoration to thee bring sacrifice of praise with shouts of exultation:
bright robes of gold the fields adorn,
the hills with joy are ringing, the valleys stand so thick with corn that even they are singing.

And now, on this our festal day, thy bounteous hand confessing, upon thine altar, Lord, we lay the first-fruits of thy blessing; by thee the souls of men are fed with gifts of grace supernal; thou who dost give us earthly bread, give us the bread eternal.

We bear the burden of the day,
and often toil seems dreary;
but labour ends with sunset ray,
and rest comes for the weary:
may we, the angel-reaping o'er,
stand at the last accepted, Christ's golden sheaves for evermore to garners bright elected.

O blessèd is that land of God,
where saints abide for ever;
where golden fields spread far and broad,
where flows the crystal river:
the strains of all its holy throng with ours to-day are blending; thrice blessèd is that harvest-song which never hath an ending.

Words: William Chatterton Dix (1837-1898)
Music: Arthur Sullivan (1842-1900)

OFFERTORY HYMN

*All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful the Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
each little bird that sings,
he made their glowing colours,
he made their tiny wings:

Refrain

The purple headed mountain, the river running by,
the sunset and the morning
that brightens up the sky:

Refrain

The cold wind in the winter,
the pleasant summer sun,
the ripe fruits in the garden,
he made them every one:

Refrain

The tall trees in the greenwood,
the meadows where we play,
the rushes by the water
we gather every day:

Refrain

He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God almighty, who has made all things well:

Refrain

POST COMMUNION HYMN

We plough the fields, and scatter
the good seed on the land, but it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand:
he sends the snow in winter,
the warmth to swell the grain,
the breezes and the sunshine,
and soft, refreshing rain.

*All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above;
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
for all his love.*

He only is the maker
of all things near and far;
he paints the wayside flower,
he lights the evening star;
the winds and waves obey him,
by him the birds are fed;
much more to us, his children,
he gives our daily bread.

Chorus

We thank thee then, O Father, for all things bright and good,
the seed-time and the harvest,
our life, our health, our food.

Accept the gifts we offer
for all thy love imparts, and, what thou most desirest,
our humble, thankful hearts.

Chorus

NOTICES

Bible Study - Bible study will continue on Tuesday evenings through the Autumn term from 7.30 - 9pm each week starting on Tuesday 2 October. Please contact Simon Sherwood on 07977 175588.

Majestas - We are excited to announce the launch of the new Parish Magazine which will be called 'Majestas'. This will be a quarterly publication comprising of excellent articles and editorials. Please watch this space for further details.

CD Release - After last Sunday evening's successful launch, the new CD of the Cathedral Organ is now on general release! Entitled Deo Gracias (Thanks be to God) it includes various works played by our own Director of Music which show off the colours and versatility of the instrument. Copies are available to buy from the Cathedral Shop priced at £12, and all profit from this venture goes directly to the Cathedral.

Following on from their concert in February, Jeanne and Alex Thorndike are holding another concert to raise funds for the Cathedral Choir's forthcoming tour to Sweden. The concert is at the Cathedral on Sunday 14th October at 5pm, and will include the beautiful Four Last Songs by Strauss as well as the serene Spiegel im Spiegel by Arvo Pärt. Jeanne and Alex can be seen at most services as their two boys are Choristers. They work as musicians themselves all over the world; Jeanne as a freelance singer and singing teacher and Alex as Assistant Principal Viola with the BBC National Orchestra of Wales and Professor of Viola at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama. We would love to see as many of you as possible. Admission is free and a retiring collection will be taken.

Penrhys Pilgrimage Launch - Hope you all enjoyed watching the pilgrim group set out last week after the Parish Eucharist. A Huge thank you to all who helped make the event so enjoyable. And yes, if you are wishing you had walked with us... it was a two part route, so small children were able to manage it. We will be doing it again in the Spring.

In order to carry on the work of the Church in and through this Cathedral Parish, not least the upkeep of this magnificent building, we rely substantially on your generous giving. A significant proportion of our funds is raised through Christian Stewardship among our regular worshippers. We invite you to give by means of Gift Direct (Giving with a Direct Debit). Furthermore, if you pay tax, the Cathedral can claim tax back to increase the value of your donation by 25%. We are enormously grateful to all who do this as an expression of their gratitude for God's great goodness. For more information, please contact the Stewardship Secretary, Mrs Helen Patterson, on 029 2061 9166.
