Collect

O God, you know us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright: grant to us such strength and protection as may support us in all dangers and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Isaiah 6. 1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.'

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!'

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: 'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.' Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 138

1 I will give thanks unto thee O Lord with my whole heart :
even before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will worship toward thy holy temple and praise your name,
because of thy loving-kindness and truth :
for thou hast magnified thy name and thy word above all things.

3 When I called upon thee, thou heardest me :
and gavest me increase of strength.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee O Lord :
when they have heard the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea they shall sing of the ways of the Lord :
that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly :
as for the proud, he humbleth them from afar.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou preserve me :
thou shalt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The Lord shall fulfil his purpose for me; thy mercy O Lord endureth for ever :
Leave not unfinished the work of thine own hands.

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

1 Cor 15. 1-11

Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke.

Luke 5. 1-11

Glory to you, O Lord.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

O worship the King all glorious above;
O gratefully sing his power and his love;
our shield and defender, the Ancient of Days,
pavilioned in splendour and girded with praise.

O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
his chariots of wrath the deep thunder clouds form,
and dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

The earth with its store of wonders untold,
almighty, thy power hath founded of old;
hath stablished it fast by a changeless decree,
and round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
it breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
it streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
and sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust and feeble as frail,
in thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end!
our maker, defender, redeemer, and friend.

O measureless might, ineffable love,
while angels delight to hymn thee above,
thy ransomed creation, though feeble their lays,
with true adoration shall sing to thy praise.

Words: William Kethe (fl.1559-1594), Robert Grant (1779-1838)
Music: HANOVER William Croft (1678-1727)

OFFERTORY HYMN

Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
 Forgive our foolish ways;
Reclothe us in our rightful mind;
 In purer lives thy service find,
 In deeper reverence, praise.

In simple trust like theirs who heard
 Beside the Syrian sea
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word
 Rise up and follow thee.

O sabbath rest by Galilee!
 O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with thee
 The silence of eternity,
 Interpreted by love!

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
 Till all our strivings cease;
Take from our souls the strain and stress,
 And let our ordered lives confess
 The beauty of thy peace.

Breathe through the heats of our desire
 Thy coolness and thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
Speak through the earthquake, wind and fire,
 O still small voice of calm!

Words: John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892)

Music: REPTON Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
early in the morning our song shall rise to thee;
holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore thee,
casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
which wert and art and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee,
though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see,
only thou art holy, there is none beside thee
perfect in power, in love, and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God almighty!
all thy works shall praise thy name in earth and sky and sea;
holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity.

Words: Reginald Heber (1783-1826)
Music: NICAEA John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

NOTICES

Canon Mark Preece will be installed as our Canon Precentor at Choral Evensong today (10th February) at 3.30pm. Tea will be served in Prebendal House after the service. All are warmly welcomed to attend.

Cathedral Music – Next Sunday, 17th February, we will welcome the choir of St George's School, Windsor Castle, to sing at the 11.00am Choral Eucharist. They will be making a recording in the Cathedral with Regent Records on the evenings of 17th-19th February. The choir will be presenting a Jazz-inspired setting of the Mass by contemporary composer Bob Chilcott entitled A Little Jazz Mass which is one of the pieces they will record. Please do give them a warm welcome and enjoy the opportunity to experience something slightly different on a Sunday morning!

On Saturday 23rd February we will welcome String players from the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama to give a recital. The performance will begin at 1.00pm with FREE entry and a retiring collection for Cathedral funds. Do come and support these young musicians in what promises to be a first-rate recital.

Confirmation – Children's Confirmation classes are being held at 4.15pm on Wednesdays in Prebendal House. Please contact Canon Graham Holcombe on 02920 569521 for details. The Confirmation service, which will be a Sung Eucharist, will be held at 5.30pm on Thursday 21st February.

PCC – The next PCC meeting is on Tuesday 12th February at 7.30pm in Prebendal House. Contact the Cathedral Office or Judith Thompson for any info.

Wedding – Rhys Jenkins, part-time vicar at the Cathedral, will be married to his fiancée Sarah on Saturday 16th February at 1.30pm. Rhys and Sarah would be delighted to see friends from Llandaff at their service if anyone would like to join them here in the Cathedral on that afternoon.

Lent 2019 – Weekly Eucharists will be held in the Nave at 7pm on Wednesdays during Lent. The Lent Lunches return from Tuesday 12th March. A frugal lunch of soup, bread and cheese will be served following the 12pm Holy Eucharist on Tuesdays. Anyone able to help cook or serve is very welcome to join a team of volunteers – please contact the Cathedral Office.

Majestas Magazine – Please send any articles for the next issue of Majestas to majestasmagazine@gmail.com by Friday 15th February.
