THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

*Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim,
till all the world adore his sacred name.*

Come, brethen, follow where our Saviour trod,
our King victorious, Christ, the Son of God.

Refrain

Led on their way by this triumphant sign,
the hosts of God in conqu'ring ranks combine.

Refrain

O Lord, once lifted on the glorious tree,
as thou hast promised, draw men unto thee.

Refrain

Thy kingdom come, that earth's despair may cease
beneath the shadow of its healing peace.

Refrain

For thy blest cross which doth for us atone, creation's praises rise before thy throne.

Refrain

Collect

Almighty God, whose blessed apostles Peter and Paul glorified you in their death as in their life: grant that your Church, inspired by their teaching and example, and made one by your Spirit, may ever stand firm upon the one foundation, Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 12. 1-11

About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword. After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.) When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. While Peter was kept in prison, the church prayed fervently to God for him. The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison. Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, 'Get up quickly.' And the chains fell off his wrists. The angel said to him, 'Fasten your belt and put on your sandals.' He did so. Then he said to him, 'Wrap your cloak around you and follow me.' Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel's help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him. Then Peter came to himself and said, 'Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 125

1 They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Zion:
which cannot be moved, but standeth fast for ever.

2 As the hills stand about Jerusalem, so standeth the Lord round about his people:
from this time forth for evermore.

3 For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the land which hath been given to the righteous:

lest the righteous put forth their hand to do wickedness.

4 Do good O Lord unto them that are good:
and unto them that are upright in heart.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the Lord shall lead them away with the evil-doers:

but upon Israel may there be peace.

A reading from St Paul's Second Letter to Timothy 2 Timothy 4. 6– 8, 17, 18

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Matthew.

Matthew 16. 13-19

Glory to you, O Lord.

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN

1. Lord, you give the great commission:
"Heal the sick and preach the Word."
Lest the church neglect its mission
and the gospel go unheard,
help us witness to your purpose
with renewed integrity;
with the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

2. Lord, you call us to your service:
"In my name baptize and teach."
That the world may trust your promise life abundant meant for each
give us all new fervor, draw us
closer in community;
with the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

3. Lord, you make the common holy:
"This my body, this my blood."
Let us all, for earth's true glory,
daily lift life heavenward,
asking that the world around us
share your children's liberty;
with the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

4. Lord, you show us love's true measure:
"Father, what they do, forgive."
Yet we hoard as private treasure
all that you so freely give.
May your care and mercy lead us
to a just society;
with the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

5. Lord, you bless with words assuring:
"I am with you to the end."
Faith and hope and love restoring,
may we serve as you intend,
and, amid the cares that claim us,
hold in mind eternity;
with the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

POST COMMUNION HYMN

I come with joy, a child of God,
forgiven, loved and free,
the life of Jesus to recall,
in love laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near
to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love
in Christ's communion bread.

As Christ breaks bread, and bids us share,
each proud division ends.
The love that made us, makes us one,
and strangers now are friends.

The Spirit of the risen Christ,
unseen, but ever near,
is in such friendship better known,
alive among us here.

Together met, together bound
by all that God has done,
we'll go with joy, to give the world
the love that makes us one.

NOTICES

Organ Recital and Cathedral Choir concert: This coming Wednesday, 3rd July, we welcome Jonathan Hope from Gloucester Cathedral to give the next in our series of Organ Recitals. Jonathan is one of the brightest talents of his generation and will be playing a programme of orchestral transcriptions in a concert that should not be missed! It begins at 7.30pm and admission to the recital is FREE. The annual Cathedral Choir concert is on Thursday 11th July and marks the end of the current academic year. Admission to the Cathedral Choir concert is by programme on the door priced £12, £8 concessions and £5 for students. Please do support these events if you can.

Festival of Prayer - Saturday 13th July 10am-4.30pm: The Llandaff and Monmouth Diocesan Day will be held at St Teilo's High School. All details on www.festivalofprayer.live. It's £25 per person including lunch. Canon Jan will be going and can give lifts if wanted. A group of 5 or more booking together attracts a discount - please speak to Canon Jan if you are interested!

Embrace the Middle East Service 25th September: Please note in your diaries an important event in support of our Lent Charity, 'Embrace the Middle East' on Wednesday 25th September at 7.30 pm. More details to follow soon.

School tour guides - could you help? We have a number of school visits to the cathedral booked in and are hoping to attract more schools in the future. We are, therefore, looking for more volunteers to join our team! Please speak to Canon Jan or Katharine MacDonald if you are interested.

Confirmation Preparation: Any adults who are interested in being confirmed please contact Canon Jan. Confirmation is a public commitment to faith, when we affirm for ourselves the promises made at baptism on our behalf. Please do speak to Canon Jan or any of the clergy about it.

Saint Teilo Guild Outing Monday 8th July: Coach leaves the Green at 10:30am for the journey to the Brecon Mountain Railway. We will board the train at 12:30 for the hour and half journey and hot and cold food will be available on the trip. We will leave Brecon at 3:00 – 3:30pm for the journey back to the Green. Toot Toot!

Welsh School of Architecture, Cardiff – Year 4 Projects Set at Llandaff Cathedral: Students in the School of Architecture at Cardiff University have been working on a project for a music facility based at Llandaff Cathedral. A selection of student's projects are currently being displayed in the St David Chapel. Visitors are welcome to provide comments on the Post-It notes provided, and we hope that the exhibition will inspire conversation and debate about the place of the cathedral in the 21st Century.

Friends of Llandaff Cathedral – On Saturday 6th July the Friends of Llandaff Cathedral will hold their AGM in the nave. The guest speaker will be Rachel Howells, who is the restorer of the Bishop Marshall Panel and will be presenting a talk about her work. The meeting will be followed by Choral Evensong at 5.30pm.
