The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God,
you have given us your servants grace,
by the confession of a true faith,
to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity
and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity:
keep us steadfast in this faith,
that we may evermore be defended from all adversities;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Almighty and eternal God,
you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
and live and reign in the perfect unity of love:
hold us firm in this faith,
that we may know you in all your ways
and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory,
who are three Persons yet one God,
now and for ever.

The First Reading

A reading from the book of Proverbs.

Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
'To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.
The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth—
when he had not yet made earth and fields,
or the world's first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,

when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight,
rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race.

Proverbs 8.1–4, 22–31

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

O Lord our Governor, how excellent is thy name in all the world:
thou hast set thy glory above the heavens!

Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou rebuked the strong,
because they are thine enemies:
that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider the heavens, even the works of thy fingers:
the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained.

What is man that thou art mindful of him:
and the son of man that thou visitest him?

Thou made him lower than the angels:
and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands:
and thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet;

All sheep and oxen:
yea and the beasts of the field;

The birds of the air and the fishes of the sea:
and whatsoever walketh through the paths of the seas.

O Lord our Governor:
how excellent is thy name in all the world!

Psalm 8

The Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans.

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Romans 5.1–5

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

The Gospel

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

John 16.12–15

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

New Sunday Lectionary – from the beginning of July, the Cathedral will begin to trial a new edition of the Sunday Lectionary. Sunday Scriptures for Reading Aloud has been devised with a number of key objectives that align closely with the Cathedral's. Perhaps the most significant of these is the use of inclusive language, ease of reading and listening, and saving valuable print resources. All without compromising the quality of the texts themselves. From July, we will provide the Bible references for the following Sunday in the Weekly Notes and a QR code, but will no longer print the readings. These can however be easily located at www.ssra.uk where they may be read or printed at home. The full version can also be downloaded for free or purchased as a hardcopy online. We also hope to have printed copies available in the Cathedral shop soon.

Summer Concert Series, Wednesdays @ 7.30pm – Our annual series of summer concerts continues on Wednesday 11th June with an organ recital given by Aaron Shilson, our Assistant Director of Music. Admission to organ concerts is free. On 25 June, the Cathedral Choirs will perform their annual Summer Concert. Tickets will be available soon.

Majestas Youth Choir is a group for 13-18 year olds, recently sang their first service in the Cathedral. This un-auditioned choir who meet on a sessional basis is a great way to experience singing with other young people in a professional context., If you would like further information about the next Majestas Youth engagement or about any other events happening in the music department, please email us at music@llandaffcathedral.org.uk.

Majestas Kids is a children's music group for children aged between 7-11 which meets at Llandaff cathedral on Saturday mornings between 10-11a.m during term times. If you love to sing, why not come and join us for the summer term where we will be putting together a performance of 'Jonah Man Jazz' – the story of Jonah and the Whale told through jazz infused songs. This will lead to a performance in July. Attendance is FREE but regular commitment for the term is needed. If your child would like to join, please email Rachel Kilby at: rachelkilby@llandaffcathedral.org.uk We look forward to seeing you!

Choral Scholars—The Dean & Chapter is looking to appoint two new Choral Scholars (one of each Alto and Tenor) for the 2025-26 academic year.
