Setting Coronation Mass Mozart

Psalm 125

Gospel

Motet

Panis angelicus

Fit panis hominum;

Dat panis coelicus

Figuris terminum:

O res mirabilis!

Manducat Dominum

Pauper, servus et humilis.

The bread of the angels

becomes the bread of mortals;

the bread of heaven

puts an end to prefigurations.

O wondrous thing!

the poor, the slave and the humble

feed on their Lord.

Words attributed to St Thomas Aquinas (1225-74)

Music: César Franck (1822-90)

Organ

March Pontificale from Symphonie I Widor

The Opening Hymn

Lift high the Cross, the love of Christ proclaim till all the world adores his sacred name.

Come, Christians, follow where the Captain trod,
the King victorious, Christ the Son of God.

Saved by this Cross on which their Lord was slain, see Adam's children their lost home regain.

From north and south, from east and west they raise in growing unison their song of praise.

Let every race and every language tell of him who saves our souls from death and hell.

O Lord, once lifted on the tree of pain,
draw all the world to seek you once again.

Set up your throne, that earth's despair may cease beneath the shadow of its healing peace.

*Lift high the Cross, the love of Christ proclaim
till all the world adores his sacred name.*

The Offertory Hymn

1. Lord, you give the great commission:
“Heal the sick and preach the word.”

Lest the church neglect its mission and the gospel go unheard,
help us witness to your purpose
with renewed integrity:
With the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

2. Lord, you call us to your service:
“In my name baptize and teach.”
That the world may trust your promise, life abundant meant for each,
give us all new fervour, draw us
closer in community:
With the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

3. Lord, you make the common holy:
“This my body, this my blood.”
Let us all, for earth's true glory,
daily lift life heavenward,
asking that the world around us
share your children's liberty:
With the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

4. Lord, you show us love's true measure:
“Father, what they do, forgive.”
Yet we hoard as private treasure all that you so freely give.
May your care and mercy lead us
to a just society:
With the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

5. Lord, you bless with words assuring:
“I am with you to the end.”
Faith and hope and love restoring,
may we serve as you intend,
and, amid the cares that claim us,
hold in mind eternity:
With the Spirit's gifts empower us
for the work of ministry.

The Closing Hymn

Hope of our calling: hope through courage won;
By those who dared to share all Christ had done.
Saints of today, Christ's banner now unfurled,
We bring his gospel to a waiting world.

Hope of our calling: hope with strength empowered,
Inspired by all that we have seen and heard;
This call is ours, for we are chosen too,
To live for God in all we say and do.

Hope of our calling: hope with grace outpoured,
From death's despair the gift of life restored;
Our call to serve, to wash each others' feet,
To bring Christ's healing touch to all we meet.

Hope of our calling: hope by faith made bold
To sow God's righteousness throughout the world;
Bring peace from conflict, fruitfulness from weeds,
The kingdom's harvest from the kingdom's seed.

Hope of our calling: Spirit-filled, unbound,
Old joys remembered and new purpose found,
Our call refreshed by sacrament and word,
We go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
