The Collect of the Day

God, who as at this time
taught the hearts of your faithful people
by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit:
grant us by the same Spirit
to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort;
through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Faithful God, who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation the way of life eternal: open our lips by your Spirit, that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The First Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

“In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Acts 2.1-21

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

O Lord, how manifold are your works!
In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

There is the sea, spread far and wide, and there move creatures beyond number, both small and great. There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan which you have made to play in the deep.

All of these look to you to give them their food in due season.

When you give it them, they gather it;
you open your hand and they are filled with good.

When you hide your face they are troubled;
when you take away their breath, they die and return again to the dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord endure for ever;
may the Lord rejoice in his works;

He looks on the earth and it trembles;
he touches the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;
I will make music to my God while I have my being.

So shall my song please him
while I rejoice in the Lord.

Let sinners be consumed out of the earth and the wicked be no more.
Bless the Lord, O my soul. Alleluia.

Psalm 104.26–end

The Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Romans 8.14–17

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

The Gospel

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

Philip said to him, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

'I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

John 14.8-17, 25-27

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

WEEKLY NOTICES

The Annual Vestry Meeting and the Annual General Meeting of The Dean and Chapter of Llandaff Cathedral (Registered Charity Number 1159090) will be held on Monday 16th June at 7.00pm in the Nave. Nomination forms for the LCCC Chair, LCCC Members and the People's Warden may be downloaded at www.llandaffcathedral.org.uk/news

The Annual Report of The Dean and Chapter will be published on the Cathedral website on Monday 9th June. Any questions in relation to the Annual Report are to be tabled to Geraint Williams, Chief Operating Officer at geraintwilliams@llandaffcathedral.org.uk by 6.00pm on Sunday 15th June.

Join us as we journey towards an EcoChurch Gold award - Llandaf Cathedral has received the Silver award. We are eager to proceed to the next level. Each week we will update you on the progress we are making and highlighting ways that you can join with us to care for God's creation. St. David said 'Be joyful, keep the faith, and do the little things...'

Thursday 5th June is World Environment Day! Celebrated on 5th June since 1973, the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) leads the biggest international day for environmental awareness and action. Each year it focuses on a pressing environmental issue, encouraging individuals, communities, and governments to take action. This year's event is hosted by South Korea, with the theme centred on ending plastic pollution. Find out more at www.unep.org

To all Welcomers and Tour Guides - Professor Maddy Gray will be giving two talks about our Cathedral tombs and effigies. The first will take place at 2pm on Wednesday 16th July starting in the nave and followed by tea and cake in the Prebendal House. The second will take place the week after at 2pm on Wednesday 23rd July, in the nave also followed by tea and cake in the Prebendal House. Please let Katharine MacDonald know if you are able to join the tour.

Parish Breakfast - Urgent help with post-service refreshments on Sunday mornings would be appreciated. We'd love to meet you! Contact Cez Palser at markandcez@gmail.com if you'd like to find out more about what's required.

Orders of Service Project – this continues, and we are now well into the second phase of development. Thank you for your continued feedback, which has made a significant contribution to ongoing decision making. Email: precentor@llandaffcathedral.org.uk

New Sunday Lectionary – from the beginning of July, the Cathedral will begin to trial a new edition of the Sunday Lectionary. Sunday Scriptures for Reading Aloud has been devised with a number of key objectives that align closely with the Cathedral's. Perhaps the most significant of these is the use of inclusive language, ease of reading and listening, and saving valuable print resources. All without compromising the quality of the texts themselves. From July, we will provide the Bible references for the following Sunday in the Weekly Notes and a QR code, but will no longer print the readings. These can however be easily located at www.ssra.uk where they may be read or printed at home. The full version can also be downloaded for free or purchased as a hardcopy online. We also hope to have printed copies available in the Cathedral shop soon.

Summer Concert Series, Wednesdays @ 7.30pm – Our annual series of summer concerts continues on Wednesday 11th June with an organ recital given by Aaron Shilson, our Assistant Director of Music. Admission to organ concerts is free. On 25 June, the Cathedral Choirs will perform their annual Summer Concert. Tickets will be available soon.

Majestas Youth Choir is a group for 13-18 year olds, recently sang their first service in the Cathedral. This un-auditioned choir who meet on a sessional basis is a great way to experience singing with other young people in a professional context., If you would like further information about the next Majestas Youth engagement or about any other events happening in the music department, please email us at music@llandaffcathedral.org.uk.

Majestas Kids is a children's music group for children aged between 7-11 which meets at Llandaff cathedral on Saturday mornings between 10-11a.m during term times. Our summer term commences on Saturday May 10th. If you love to sing, why not come and join us for the summer term where we will be putting together a performance of 'Jonah Man Jazz' – the story of Jonah and the Whale told through jazz infused songs. This will lead to a performance in July. Attendance is FREE but regular commitment for the term is needed. If your child would like to join, please email Rachel Kilby at: rachelkilby@llandaffcathedral.org.uk We look forward to seeing you!

Choral Scholars—The Dean & Chapter is looking to appoint two new Choral Scholars (one of each Alto and Tenor) for the 2025-26 academic year. This is an ideal opportunity for a gap-year, undergraduate, or post-graduate student to experience life working in a busy cathedral music department. Closing date is noon on Friday 6th June. See www.llandaffcathedral.org.uk/work-with-us
