We are delighted to welcome you to this service at your Cathedral, which has been a site of Christian worship for over 1,500 years. If you are joining us for the first time, please introduce yourself to a member of clergy, who will be happy to tell you more about worship in this place.

The Sunday School meets during this service every Sunday during term time. If you would like more information, or would like to register a child to take part, please speak to a member of the Sunday School staff (who will be wearing staff T-shirts) or email krisihillebert@llandaffcathedral.org.uk.

Response to Psalm 34

All

Come, children, and listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

The Opening Hymn

1. Fathers and mothers,
sisters and brothers,
all those who love us,
for whom we care:
help and befriend them,
keep and defend them,
Jesus our Saviour,
this is our prayer.

2. And for those others,
fathers and mothers,
children who hunger,
they must be fed:
we would be caring,
readily sharing,
one with another
our daily bread.

3. Sisters and brothers,
fathers and mothers,
we who together
offer our praise:
hear our thanksgiving,
God ever living,
may we walk with you
all of our days.

The Offertory Hymn

1. Now thank we all our God, with hearts and hands and voices,
who wondrous things hath done,
in whom the world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
in this world and the next.

3. All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven,
the one eternal God,
whom earth and heaven adore,
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

Words: Nun danket alle Gott
Martin Rinkart (1586-1649) translated by Catherine Winkworth (1827-78)

Music: NUN DANKET
Melody in J. Crüger's
Praxis Pietatis Melica (c. 1647)
Harmony chiefly from Mendelssohn's Lobgesang (1840)

The Closing Hymn

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I'm found;
was blind, but now I see.

2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed.

3. Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come.
'Tis grace that brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

4. The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

5. When we've been there a thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun.

Words: John Newton (1725-1807)
and John Rees (1828-1900)
