The Opening Hymn

1. Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us
o'er the world's tempestuous sea;
guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us
for we have no help but thee;
yet possessing every blessing,
if our God our Father be.

2. Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us;
all our weakness thou dost know;
thou didst tread this earth before us,
thou didst feel its keenest woe;
lone and dreary, faint and weary,
through the desert thou didst go.

3. Spirit of our God, descending,
fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
love with every passion blending,
pleasure that can never cloy:
thus provided, pardoned, guided,
nothing can our peace destroy.

Words: James Edmeston (1791-1867)

Music: MANNHEIM
Friedrich Filitz (1804-76)

The Offertory Hymn

1. I cannot tell why he, whom angels worship,
should set his love upon us, now and then,
or why, as Shepherd, he should seek the wanderers,
to bring them back, they know not how or when.
But this I know, that he was born of Mary,
when Bethlehem's manger was his only home,
and that he lived at Nazareth and laboured,
and so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is come.

2. I cannot tell how silently he suffered,
as with his peace he graced this place of tears,
or how his heart upon the cross was broken,
the crown of pain to three-and-thirty years.
But this I know, he heals the broken-hearted,
and stays our sin, and calms our lurking fear,
and lifts the burden from the heavy-laden,
for yet the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is here.

3. I cannot tell how he will win the nations,
how he will claim his earthly heritage,
how satisfy the needs and aspirations
of east and west, of sinner and of sage.
But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory,
and he shall reap the harvest he has sown,
and some glad day his sun will shine in splendour
when he the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known.

4. I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship,
when, at his bidding, every storm is stilled,
or who can say how great the jubilation
when all our hearts with love for him are filled.
But this I know, the skies will sound his praises,
ten thousand thousand human voices sing,
and earth to heaven, and heaven to earth, will answer,
'At last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King!'

Words: William Young Fullerton (1857-1932)
Music: LONDONDERRY AIR
Air from County Derry
from Irish Music as noted by George Petrie (1903)
harmonised by John Barnard (b.1948)

The Closing Hymn

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, key of D major (two sharps), and 7/8 time. It consists of four staves. The first staff contains the initial melody. The second staff begins with a first ending bracket labeled '1.2.' and a second ending bracket labeled '3. Fin.' followed by the instruction 'Refrain (after vv. 1 & 2)'. Below the second staff, the lyrics 'Mas-ter, grant that I may ne-ver' are written, with a circled 'O' under the first measure. The third staff continues the melody with lyrics 'seek so much to be con-soled as to con - sole, _____ to be'. The fourth staff concludes the piece with lyrics 'un-der-stood as to un-der stand, to be loved, as to love with all my soul. _____'. The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, and rests.

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
Where there is injury your pardon, Lord;
And where there's doubt true faith in you.

*Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.*

2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
Where there is darkness, only light;
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

Refrain

3. Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
In giving unto all that we receive;
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.
