The Opening Hymn

We plough the fields, and scatter the good seed on the land, but it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand:
he sends the snow in winter, the warmth to swell the grain, the breezes and the sunshine, and soft, refreshing rain.

All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above; then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord, for all his love.

He only is the maker
of all things near and far;
he paints the wayside flower, he lights the evening star;
the winds and waves obey him, by him the birds are fed;
much more to us, his children, he gives our daily bread.
Refrain

We thank thee then, O Father, for all things bright and good,
the seed-time and the harvest, our life, our health, our food.
No gifts have we to offer for all thy love imparts, but that which thou desirest, our humble, thankful hearts.
Refrain

The Offertory Hymn

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful the Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings, he made their glowing colours,
he made their tiny wings:

Refrain

The purple headed mountain, the river running by,
the sunset and the morning that brightens up the sky:

Refrain

The cold wind in the winter, the pleasant summer sun,
the ripe fruits in the garden,
he made them every one:

Refrain

He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God almighty, who has made all things well:

Refrain

Words: Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895)

Music: ALL THINGS BRIGHT AND BEAUTIFUL William Henry Monk (1823-1889)

The Closing Hymn

1. Now thank we all our God, with hearts and hands and voices, who wondrous things hath done, in whom the world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us in his grace, and guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ills in this world and the next.

3. All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven, the one eternal God,
whom earth and heaven adore,
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

Words: Nun danket alle Gott
Martin Rinkart (1586-1649) translated by Catherine Winkworth (1827-78)

Music: NUN DANKET
Melody in J. Crüger's
Praxis Pietatis Melica (c. 1647)
Harmony chiefly from Mendelssohn's Lobgesang (1840)
