Sunday 23rd July 2017: THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (TRINITY 6)

Collect

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from Isaiah

Isaiah 44. 6 – 8

Thus says the Lord, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god. Who is like me? Let them proclaim it, let them declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be. Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses! Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 86 (vv 11 – 17)

11. Teach me thy way O Lord, that I may walk in thy truth:

 O let my heart rejoice in reverence for thy name.

12. I will thank thee O Lord my God with all my heart:

 and will praise thy name for evermore.

13. For great is thy loving-kindness toward me:

 and thou hast delivered my life from the nether most pit.

14. O God the proud are risen against me:

 and a company of violent men seek after my life, and set not thee before their eyes.

15. But thou O Lord God art full of compassion and mercy:

 long-suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.

16. O turn thee then unto me and have mercy upon me:

 give thy strength unto thy servant and help the son of thine handmaid.

17. Shew me a token of thy favour, that they who hate me may see it and be ashamed:

 because thou Lord hast been my helper and my comforter.

A reading from St Paul's Letter to the Romans

Romans 8. 12 – 25

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Matthew. Matthew 13. 24-30, 36-43
Glory to you, O Lord.

He put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, "Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?" He answered, "An enemy has done this." The slaves said to him, "Then do you want us to go and gather them?" But he replied, "No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn." Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, 'Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.' He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Alleluia, sing to Jesus!
his the sceptre, his the throne;
Alleluia, his the triumph,
his the victory alone:
hark, the songs of peaceful Zion
thunder like a mighty flood;
'Jesus out of every nation
hath redeemed us by his blood.'

Alleluia, not as orphans
are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluia, he is near us,
faith believes, nor questions how:
though the cloud from sight received him,
when the forty days were o'er,
shall our hearts forget his promise,
'I am with you evermore'?

Alleluia, bread of angels,
thou on earth our food, our stay;
Alleluia, here the sinful
flee to you from day to day:
Intercessor, Friend of sinners,
earth's Redeemer, plead for me,
where the songs of all the sinless sweep across the crystal sea.

Alleluia, sing to Jesus!
his the sceptre, his the throne;
Alleluia, his the triumph,
his the victory alone:
hark, the songs of peaceful Zion
thunder like a mighty flood;
'Jesus out of every nation
hath redeemed us by his blood.'

Words: William Chatterton Dix (1837-1898)
Music: HYFRYDOL Melody by Richard Huw Pritchard (1811-87)

OFFERTORY HYMN

Thy hand, O God, has guided thy flock, from age to age;
their wondrous tale is written,
full clear, on every page;
our fathers owned thy goodness,
and we their deeds record;
and both of this bear witness;
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

Thy heralds brought glad tidings
to greatest as to least;
they bade men rise, and hasten
to share the great King's feast;
and this was all their teaching,
in every deed and word,
to all alike proclaiming
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

Through many a day of darkness,
through many a scene of strife,
the faithful few fought bravely,
to guard the nation's life.
Their gospel of redemption,
sin pardoned, man restored,
was all in this enfolded:
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

And we, shall we be faithless?
Shall hearts fail, hands hang down?
shall we evade the conflict,
and cast away our crown?
Not so: in God's deep counsels
some better thing is stored;
we will maintain, unflinching,
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

Thy mercy will not fail us,
nor leave thy work undone;
with thy right hand to help us,
thy victory shall be won;
And then, by men and angels,
thy name shall be adored,
and this shall be their anthem:
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

Words: Edward Hayes Plumptre (1821-1891)
Music: THORNBURY Basil Harwood (1859-1949)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Christ is the world's true Light,
Its Captain of salvation,
The Daystar shining bright
To every man and nation;
New life, new hope awakes,
Where'er men own his sway:
Freedom her bondage breaks,
And night is turned to day.

In Christ all races meet,
Their ancient feuds forgetting,
The whole round world complete,
From sunrise to its setting:
When Christ is throned as Lord,
Men shall forsake their fear,
To plowshare beat the sword,
To pruning-hook the spear.

One Lord, in one great name
Unite us all who own thee;
Cast out our pride and shame
That hinder to enthrone thee;
The world has waited long,
Has trailed long in pain,
To heal its ancient wrong,
Come, Prince of Peace, and reign.

Words: G.W. Briggs (1875-1959)

Music: NUN DANKET Melody from J. Crüger's Praxis Melica (c.1647)

ADVANCE NOTICES

Training for Guides and Welcomers - Our next meeting will be on Tuesday 12th September when Mr John Bethell will take us on a guided tour of the Cathedral. This will be especially helpful for anyone new to the Welcoming team but is also open to anyone interested in the topic. Please meet at 2:00 pm inside the West Door. If anyone is interested in finding out what it means to be a Welcomer then please come along and join us, or contact Canon Holcombe or Judith Thompson.
(email judiththompson.llandaff@gmail.com)

Bible Study - The Tuesday evening bible study group has finished for the summer. It will start up again on Tuesday 12 September. All are welcome - please contact Simon Sherwood (07977 175588).

Christian Aid 2017 - Please have a look at the CA table this week to see how the magnificent result of our Christian Aid may be used to help some of the most desperate people in the world. Your generosity really will have an effect: once again Thank You so much from us all on the CA Committee.

Rainbow Fair Balloons - A new initiative at the Rainbow Fair this year was to release messages of goodwill on balloons of rainbow colours from the Lych Gate. Anyone finding the messages was asked to reply and we are delighted that we have had our first reply. Congratulations to Mrs Miles whose balloon and message reached Cannington near Bridgewater in Somerset and many thanks to Mr McCaul who replied. Llandaff Cathedral Social Committee
