Sunday 15 October 2017: THE NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
(TRINITY 18)

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies beneath and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Isaiah 25. 1 - 9

O Lord, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure. For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of aliens is a city no more, it will never be rebuilt. Therefore strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you. For you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm, the noise of aliens like heat in a dry place, you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds; the song of the ruthless was stilled. On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall make me to lie down in green pastures:

and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall refresh my soul:

and bring me forth in the right way for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me, in the presence of them that I trouble me:

thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

Yea thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A reading from Paul's Letter to the Philippians

Philippians 4. 1 - 9

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Matthew.

Matthew 22. 1 - 14

Glory to you, O Lord.

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet." Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. "But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
to his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven who like thee his praise should sing?
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise the everlasting King!

Praise him for his grace and favour to his people in distress;
praise him still the same for ever,
slow to chide, and swift to bless:
Praise him! Praise him!
Glorious in his faithfulness!

Father-like he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hands he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes:
Praise him! Praise him!
Widely as his mercy flows!

Angels, help us to adore him,
ye behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him,
dwellers all in time and space:
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise with us the God of grace!

Words: Henry Francis Lyte (1793-1847)
Music: PRAISE MY SOUL John Goss (1800-80)

OFFERTORY HYMN

Light's abode, celestial Salem,
Vision whence true peace doth spring,
Brighter than the heart can fancy,
Mansion of the highest King;
O how glorious are the praises
Which of thee the prophets sing!

There for ever and for ever
Alleluia is out-poured;
For unending, for unbroken,
Is the feast-day of the Lord;
All is pure and all is holy
That within thy walls is stored.

There no cloud nor passing vapour
Dims the brightness of the air;
Endless noon-day, glorious noon-day
From the Sun of suns is there;
There no night brings rest from labour,
For unknown are toil and care.

O how glorious and resplendent,
Fragile body, shalt thou be,
When endued with so much beauty,
Full of health, and strong, and free,
Full of vigour, full of pleasure
That shall last eternally!

Now with gladness, now with courage,
Bear the burden on thee laid,
That hereafter these thy labours
May with endless gifts be paid,
And in everlasting glory
Thou with joy may'st be arrayed.

Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever three and ever one,
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Jerusalem the golden,
with milk and honey blest, beneath thy contemplation sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, O I know not what social joys are there,
what radiancy of glory,
what light beyond compare.

They stand, those halls of Sion, conjugilant with song,
and bright with many an angel
and all the martyr throng;
the Prince is ever with them,
the daylight is serene,
the pastures of the blessèd are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David;
and there, from care released,
the song of them that triumph,
the shout of them that feast;
and they, who with their Leader have conquered in the fight, for ever and for ever are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessèd country,
shall I ever see thy face?
O sweet and blessèd country,
shall I ever win thy grace?
Exult, O dust and ashes!
the Lord shall be thy part:
his only, his for ever,
thou shalt be, and thou art!

ADVANCE NOTICES

Safeguarding Training: A reminder that the Church in Wales Safeguarding Training Session for Llandaff Cathedral staff and volunteers will take place on Monday 16th October from 9:30 - 1pm in the Prebendal House. All individuals invited to this particular session have already been informed about this opportunity to update their knowledge of Safeguarding issues.

Llandaff Mothers' Union: Thank you to the members who attended the Llandaff Diocesan General Meeting. At the next meeting, on Monday 16th October at 2.15pm, we welcome as our speaker Lynne Davies, Llandaff Mothers' Union Diocesan President. We welcome visitors and new members to join us.

'Saying Goodbye Service' - 21st October 2017 at 2.30pm: This is a service of remembrance for people who have suffered the loss of a baby at any stage, and whether this loss was recently or even decades ago. The Service provides a safe space for everyone collectively to 'say goodbye'. This Service also welcomes anyone who is grieving the fact that they have been unable to have children.

Funeral Service for Jean Jones: The service will be on Wednesday 18 October at 2.30pm, in the Lady Chapel.

Giving to the Cathedral by Direct Debit: A number of people have asked me whether or not, in setting up a direct debit to the Church in Wales for the benefit of the Cathedral, we actually receive it in full. The Representative Body of the Church in Wales, set up a scheme on behalf of the Churches in order to help with the administration of the scheme and to claim Gift Aid for those who pay tax. Donations are taken by the Church in Wales, but the full amount of your gift reaches us, plus the Gift Aid. As long as you nominate the Cathedral on the form, we claim the full amount you've chosen to give. So, for example, if you chose to give £100 a month, we receive £100 and furthermore, if you have gift aided your donation the amount we receive is £125. Many thanks, The Dean.

Calling All Christian Aid Collectors: With grey skies and the leaves falling, it's hard to recall that there was a summer! But way back then, we wrote to thank you for all your hard work and enclosed an invitation to a Celebration Evensong and Tea Party from 3.30pm on Sunday 26th November. It's all a long time ago, so we thought we should repeat the invitation, with apologies to those of you who have already replied. Your new invitation (with a different RSVP date) is on the Charities Table in the Cathedral, and we very much hope you can join us for this special occasion. Sue Smith (029 2056 9234 or dlsmsmith@msn.com) and the Christian Aid Team.
