Sunday 14 January 2018: THE SECOND SUNDAY of EPIPHANY

Collect

Almighty God, in Christ you make all things new: transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives make known your heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the First Book of the Prophet Samuel

1 Samuel 3.1–10

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread. At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' and he said, 'Here I am!' and ran to Eli, and said, 'Here I am, for you called me.' But he said, 'I did not call; lie down again.' So he went and lay down. The Lord called again, 'Samuel!' Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, 'Here I am, for you called me.' But he said, 'I did not call, my son; lie down again.' Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, 'Here I am, for you called me.' Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, 'Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening."' So Samuel went and lay down in his place. Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, 'Samuel! Samuel!' And Samuel said, 'Speak, for your servant is listening.'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 139

- 1 O Lord thou hast searched me out and known me:
    thou knowest my down sitting, and mine uprising,
    thou understandest my thoughts from afar.
- 2 Thou art ever about my path and the places where I rest:
    and art acquainted with all my ways.
- 3 For lo there is not a word in my mouth:
    but thou O Lord knowest it altogether.
- 4 Thou hast protected me behind and before:
    and hast covered me with thine hand.
- 5 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me:
    so excellent that I cannot attain unto it.
- 6 Whither shall I go from thy spirit:
    or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
- 7 If I climb up into heaven thou art there:
    if I make my bed in the grave thou art there also.
- 8 If I fly on the wings of the morning:
    or alight in the uttermost parts of the west,
- 9 Even there shall thy hand lead me:
    and thy right hand shall hold me.
- 10 If I say 'Surely the darkness shall cover me:
    and my day be I turned to night',

A reading from Revelation

Revelation 5.1–10

Then I saw in the right hand of the one seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals; and I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, ‘Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?’ And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it. And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it. Then one of the elders said to me, ‘Do not weep. See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.’ Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne. When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. They sing a new song: ‘You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation; you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign on earth.’

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John.

John 1.43–51

Glory to you, O Lord.

The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, ‘Follow me.’ Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, ‘We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.’ Nathanael said to him, ‘Can anything good come out of Nazareth?’ Philip said to him, ‘Come and see.’ When Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, he said of him, ‘Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!’ Nathanael asked him, ‘Where did you come to know me?’ Jesus answered, ‘I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.’ Nathanael replied, ‘Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!’ Jesus answered, ‘Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.’ And he said to him, ‘Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM PARISH EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Alleluia, sing to Jesus!
his the sceptre, his the throne;
Alleluia, his the triumph,
his the victory alone:
hark, the songs of peaceful Sion thunder like a mighty flood;
'Jesus out of every nation hath redeemed us by his blood.'

Alleluia, not as orphans are we left in sorrow now; Alleluia, he is near us, faith believes, nor questions how:
though the cloud from sight received him,
when the forty days were o'er,
shall our hearts forget his promise,
'I am with you evermore'?

Alleluia, bread of angels,
thou on earth our food, our stay;
Alleluia, here the sinful flee to you from day to day:
Intercessor, Friend of sinners, earth's Redeemer, plead for me,
where the songs of all the sinless sweep across the crystal sea.

Alleluia, King eternal,
Thee the Lord of lords we own;
Alleluia, born of Mary,
earth your footstool, heaven thy throne:
Thou within the veil hast entered,
robed in flesh, our great High Priest;
Thou on earth both Priest and Victim in the Eucharistic Feast.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Just as I am, without one plea but that thy blood was shed for me, and that thou bidst me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, though tossed about with many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings within and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, thou wilt receive, wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve:
because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am (thy love unknown has broken every barrier down),
now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, of that free love the breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Words: Charlotte Elliott (1789-1871)
Music: SAFFRON WALDEN Arthur Henry Brown (1830-1926)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go,
My daily labour to pursue,
Thee, only thee, resolved to know
In all I think, or speak, or do.

The task thy wisdom hath assigned
O let me cheerfully fulfil,
In all my works thy presence find,
And prove thy good and perfect will,

Preserve me from my calling's snare,
And hide my simple heart above,
Above the thorns of choking care,
The gilded baits of worldly love.

Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes my inmost substance see,
And labour on at thy command,
And offer all my works to thee.

Give me to bear thy easy yoke,
And every moment watch and pray,
And still to things eternal look,
And hasten to thy glorious day;

For thee delightfully employ Whate'er thy bounteous grace has given,
And run my course with even joy,
And closely walk with thee to heaven.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-88)

Music: SONG 34 (ANGELS' SONG) Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)

NOTICES

Bible Study: Starts on Tuesday 16 January from 7.30pm to 9pm, and will continue through the term. We will start by studying Jonah, Joel and Amos. Please contact Simon Sherwood on 07977 175588.

Thinking about Adult Baptism or Confirmation? Want to find out more about the Christian faith? Contact Canon Mari Price on 07583 073197. Classes began on Tuesday 9 January, 2018.

Penrhys Pilgrimage: In the Middle Ages, pilgrims gathered at Llandaff Cathedral before walking the twenty-two miles to see Our Lady of Penrhys and to visit the Holy Well there. The route still exists but has become overgrown and unloved. So, a Working Party has got together to recreate the route again. There are exciting plans afoot, from using plants featured in the reredos in the Lady Chapel as natural way markers, to producing Pilgrims' Pecker, a cake to sustain you on the walk. If you would like to come to the next meeting of the Working Party, it is in Prebendal House on Thursday 18 January at 10.30am. You'll be very welcome, and rumour has it there will be some Pilgrims' Pecker to sample. You can contact us on ppwp2020@gmail.com or speak to Helen Lloyd Jones 02920 842279.

Clerestory Works: As we approach the beginning of the next stage of the repair work to the Cathedral clerestory which will take place in the Choir, the Cathedral Organ has been covered internally with plastic sheeting to protect it from dust and dirt. The Organ console (from where the instrument is played) has also been boxed in. This means we will be without the organ for the duration of the work bringing our wonderful Steinway piano into its own to accompany our worship. Choral services will continue as usual during this period. I am grateful to all of our musicians, particularly those who usually play the organ, for their willingness and flexibility during what will be a interesting and different period for us all. We look forward to having the organ back during the latter part of Lent. Stephen Moore.

Opportunities for New Sunday School Leaders: Our thriving Sunday School meets in Prebendal House at 9.00am every week in term time, with up to 100 children attending (aged 3-11) plus a monthly youth meeting on the last Sunday of each month. There is an enthusiastic and experienced team of leaders already, but as we start 2018 there is an opportunity for new volunteers to come forward. The work is very rewarding and it is not necessary to commit to attend every single week. We can provide some training and have excellent teaching resources to draw on. If you would like to find out more please speak to Fr Edward in the first instance or email expressing your interest to gerardbates@talktalk.net. All new leaders must be willing to provide references and complete a DBS check.

Stewardship Campaign Update: A sincere thanks to the members of our congregations who have changed their financial giving to Gift Direct and those who have increased their Gift Direct giving. Members of the PCC will be available over the next few weeks on Sundays at morning services, by the West Door of the Cathedral. They will be happy to answer any concerns regarding the ongoing stewardship campaign and will have the necessary Gift Direct forms and written information explaining how to increase your financial giving to support Llandaff Cathedral.

Upcoming Llandaff Mothers' Union Events: Monday 15 January – Branch Lunch at the Maltsters, names and payment to Barbara Treharne. Guests of members, visitors and prospective members are very welcome to attend our meetings held in the Parish Hall. Llandaff Parish Mothers' Union. Monday 29 January – The Wave of Prayer in the Dyfrig Chapel. Please assemble at 10.45am as our slot starts at 10.56 am. For further information please contact Enid Evans.

Llandaff Society Talk: Bishop June will be giving a talk to the Llandaff Society on Friday 26 January, 7.30pm, at the New Memorial Hall. All are welcome, and entry is £2 for members and £3 for non-members. Refreshments will be available.

Friends of Llandaff Cathedral Annual Lunch: The 2018 annual lunch will be held at Cardiff Metropolitan University, Western Avenue on Thursday 1 February. Menu - Pan fried chicken breast accompanied by Lyonnaise potatoes and seasonal vegetables or vegetarian option, followed by rosemary pannacotta with winter berry compote and vanilla thyme shortbread, and tea/coffee. Tickets at £12 each are now available from Linda Quinn, 74 Pencisely Road, CF5 1DH. Cheques payable to Friends of Llandaff Cathedral and SAE please. Please state any dietary requirements when booking. Do come and join us for this friendly occasion with our neighbours.

Flower Guild AGM: On Wednesday 7 February at 2pm, in Prebendal House. Subscriptions are due for renewal, and new members are most welcome.

Parish Stewards: The 12.30pm Sunday service in March and April need support from our team of Parish Stewards to help welcome, give out books and take the collection. If any Parish Steward is able to support these services on either month, please let Katharine MacDonald know as soon as possible on 029 2056 2488.

Next Sunday: 21 January 2018

All enquiries about Baptisms and Weddings (& Banns of Marriage) should be made by email or letter to the Cathedral Office.

In order to carry on the work of the Church in and through this Cathedral Parish, not least the upkeep of this magnificent building, we rely substantially on your generous giving. A significant proportion of our funds is raised through Christian Stewardship among our regular worshippers. We invite you to give by means of Gift Direct (Giving with a Direct Debit). Furthermore, if you pay tax, the Cathedral can claim tax back to increase the value of your donation by 25%. We are enormously grateful to all who do this as an expression of their gratitude for God's great goodness. For more information, please contact the Stewardship Secretary, Mrs Helen Patterson, on 029 2061 9166.
