Collect

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Exodus

Exodus 20. 1–17

Then God spoke all these words: I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments. You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name. Remember the Sabbath day, and keep it holy. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work - you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and consecrated it. Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour. You shall not covet your neighbour's house; you shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 19(v7 – 14)

7 The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul:

the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart:

the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever:

the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea than much fine gold:

sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant taught:

and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth:

O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me:
so shall I be undefiled and innocent of great offence.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight:
O Lord my strength and my redeemer.

A reading from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians

1 Corinthians 1. 18–25

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, 'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.' Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John.

John 2. 13–22

Glory to you, O Lord.

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money-changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, 'Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a market-place!' His disciples remembered that it was written, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' The Jews then said to him, 'What sign can you show us for doing this?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews then said, 'This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore him;
praise him, angels, in the height;
sun and moon, rejoice before him,
praise him, all ye stars and light.
Praise the Lord! for he hath spoken;
worlds his mighty voice obeyed:
laws, which never shall be broken,
for their guidance he hath made.

Praise the Lord! for he is glorious;
never shall his promise fail:
God hath made his saints victorious;
sin and death shall not prevail.
Praise the God of our salvation;
hosts on high, his power proclaim;
heaven and earth, and all creation,
laud and magnify his name!

Worship, honour, glory, blessing,
Lord we offer to thy name;
young and old, thy praise expressing,
join their Saviour to proclaim.
As the saints in heav'n adore thee,
we would bow before thy throne;
as thine angels serve before thee,
so on earth thy will be done.

Words: Foundling Hospital Collection 1796/1801, v3 Edward Osler (1798-1863)
ABBOT'S LEIGH Cyril Taylor (1907-91)

OFFERTORY HYMN

All my hope on God is founded;
He doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
Only good and only true.
God unknown,
He alone
Calls my heart to be his own.

Pride of man and earthly glory,
Sword and crown betray his trust;
What with care and toil he buildeth,
Tower and temple, fall to dust.
But God's power,
Hour by hour,
Is my temple and my tower.

God's great goodness ay endureth,
Deep his wisdom, passing thought:
Splendour, light, and life attend him,
Beauty springeth out of nought.
Evermore,
From his store
New-born worlds rise and adore.

Daily doth the almighty giver
Bounteous gifts on us bestow;
His desire our soul delighteth,
Pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand
At his hand;
Joy doth wait on his command.

Still from man to God eternal Sacrifice of praise be done,
High above all praises praising
For the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call
One and all:
Ye who follow shall not fall.

POST COMMUNION HYMN

We love the place, O God, wherein thine honour dwells;
the joy of thine abode
all earthly joy excels.

We love the house of prayer,
wherein thy servants meet;
and thou, O Lord, art there thy chosen flock to greet.

We love the sacred font;
for there the holy Dove
to pour is ever wont his blessing from above.

We love thine altar, Lord;
O what on earth so dear?
for there, in faith adored,
we find thy presence near.

We love the word of life,
the word that tells of peace,
of comfort in the strife,
and joys that never cease.

We love to sing below
for mercies freely given;
but O, we long to know
the triumph-song of heaven.

Lord Jesus, give us grace on earth to love thee more,
in heaven to see thy face,
and with thy saints adore.

Words: William Bullock (1787-1874), Henry Williams Baker (1821-77)
Music: QUAM DILECTA Bishop Henry Jenner (1820-98)

NOTICES

The Bishop's Lent Talks: A series of talks will be delivered by Bishop June in each of the three archdeaconries during Lent. The talks for the Llandaff Archdeaconry are at the Cathedral, beginning at 7pm, on Thursdays 8 March and 15 March. All welcome.

Holy Eucharist with Lenten Address: A celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with a Lenten reflection, will be offered at 7.30pm each Wednesday through Lent.

Llandaff Branch Mothers' Union: Tomorrow, Monday 5 March at 2.15pm in the Parish Hall, we welcome David James whose talk is titled 'Travels Around The Empire'. We look forward to seeing members, prospective members and visitors at the meeting.

Another Story Must Begin: A big thank you to everyone who came to the beginning of the Lent Course last Tuesday. This week we will be meeting on Tuesday 6 March at 7.30pm in Prebendal House, where we will continue our Lenten reflections on the film 'Les Miserables'. Tea and coffee will be provided and our meetings will conclude with a short service of Compline (Night Prayer). Please do bring a bible with you, otherwise all material will be given to you. If you have any questions please contact Fr Edward on 02920 568842 or fredward@llandaffcathedral.org.uk.

Lent Lunches: The tradition of Lent Lunches has been a practice here in Llandaff for many years. A frugal lunch of soup, cheese, bread and butter followed by tea or coffee and some good conversation with friends, with proceeds going to charity to help those in need. The Lent Lunches take place in Prebendal House following the 12noon Eucharist on Tuesdays 6, 13 and 20 March, beginning at approximately 12.30pm and finishing at 1.30pm. The cost will be £6 payable at the door with all proceeds going to the Llandaff Cathedral Lenten Appeal. If you can help by hosting a lunch, making soup or serving and waiting on tables, please speak to Katharine MacDonald (Churchwarden) or Judith Thompson. Llandaff Cathedral Social Committee.

YOUTH3:16: A huge thank you to everyone who helped with the launch of our Youth Group. We were delighted that 18 young people joined us, and it was a great success. Our next meeting will be on Sunday 18 March from 4.30pm to 6pm in Prebendal House. If you think anyone might be interested to find out more, please contact Fr Edward at fredward@llandaffcathedral.org.uk or Mark Woods at markdanielwoods@yahoo.co.uk. Please do continue to keep us in your prayers.

Guild of St. Teilo: There is an amendment to the advertised programme on Monday 26 March, when Mr David Smith will be talking about Llandaff Conservation 1968 - 2018.

Guild of Guides and Welcomers: Cathedral Guides are responsible for taking pre-booked groups of people around the building and giving detailed specific information. Welcomers are the friendly face that visitors see as they first enter our beautiful Cathedral. Our records show that last year we welcomed in excess of 14,000 visitors from all over the world and the comments in the visitors' book make wonderfully uplifting reading. Thank you to all those who give so generously of their time to the ministry of Welcoming and Guiding. We very much need more Guides and Welcomers, so if you would like more information please speak to Canon Graham Holcombe or Judith Thompson (029 2055 1836 or judiththompson.llandaff@gmail.com).

Christian Aid Week, May 13-19: In 2017 the Cathedral community raised over £12,000 in Christian Aid Week – and nearly £8,000 came from the house-to-house collection. If we could do this again, we could improve the lives of over 1,000 displaced people who have no homes following natural disasters in Haiti, and who do not expect to survive the next (inevitable) disaster. But we can't do it without collectors! Each year there are a few of last year's who can't manage it and for whom we need replacements. It really doesn't take long: 3 hours should cover envelope delivery and a couple of collecting rounds for 20 houses – and it can be done during the day or in the light evenings, so people out at work during the day can participate. We will supply everything you need for the collection; all you need to supply is your willingness to help. Just three hours in May to transform a thousand lives! If you can help, please sign the list on the table at the back of the Cathedral, or contact any of the Christian Aid team (details on the display board). Thank you so much. Sue Smith (029 2056 9234 or dlsmsmith@msn.com).

Rainbow Fair 2018: Our annual summer fair will take place this year on Friday 6 July, 6pm to 8pm on the Cathedral Green. Discussions have already started but if you have any ideas or suggestions, or would like to volunteer or run a stall or activity, then please speak to any member of the Social Committee or contact Judith Thompson on 029 2055 1836. Llandaff Cathedral Social Committee.

In order to carry on the work of the Church in and through this Cathedral Parish, not least the upkeep of this magnificent building, we rely substantially on your generous giving. A significant proportion of our funds is raised through Christian Stewardship among our regular worshippers. We invite you to give by means of Gift Direct (Giving with a Direct Debit). Furthermore, if you pay tax, the Cathedral can claim tax back to increase the value of your donation by 25%. We are enormously grateful to all who do this as an expression of their gratitude for God's great goodness. For more information, please contact the Stewardship Secretary, Mrs Helen Patterson, on 029 2061 9166.
