Collect

Almighty God, by whose providence your servant John the Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of your Son our Saviour by the preaching of repentance: lead us to repent according to his preaching, and after his example constantly to speak the truth, boldly to rebuke vice, and patiently to suffer for the truth's sake; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Isaiah 40. 1-11

Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

A voice cries out: 'In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.'

A voice says, 'Cry out!' And I said, 'What shall I cry?' All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand for ever. Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, 'Here is your God!' see, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 85(vv5-12)

5 Wilt thou be displeased at us for ever:

and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not give us life again:

that thy people may rejoice in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy O Lord:

and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hearken what the Lord God will say:

for he shall speak peace unto his people and to his servants,
even unto the upright in heart.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him:

that his glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together:

righteousness and peace have embraced each other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth:

and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12 Yea the Lord shall give prosperity:
and our land shall yield her increase.

A reading from St Paul's Letter to the Galatians

Galatians 3. 23-29

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke.

Luke 1. 57-66, 80

Glory to you, O Lord.

Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son. Her neighbours and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him Zechariah after his father. But his mother said, 'No; he is to be called John.' They said to her, 'None of your relatives has this name.' Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him. He asked for a writing-tablet and wrote, 'His name is John.' And all of them were amazed. Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began to speak, praising God. Fear came over all their neighbours, and all these things were talked about throughout the entire hill country of Judea. All who heard them pondered them and said, 'What then will this child become?' For, indeed, the hand of the Lord was with him. The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day he appeared publicly to Israel.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry
announces that the Lord is nigh;
awake and hearken, for he brings
glad tidings from the King of kings!

Then cleansed be every Christian breast,
and furnished for so great a guest!
Yea, let us each our heart prepare for Christ to come and enter there.

For thou art our salvation, Lord,
our refuge, and our great reward;
without thy grace we waste away
like flowers that wither and decay.

To heal the sick stretch out thy hand,
and bid the fallen sinner stand;
shine forth, and let thy light restore
earth's own true loveliness once more.

All praise, eternal Son, to thee
whose advent sets thy people free,
whom, with the Father, we adore,
and Holy Ghost, for evermore. Amen.

Words: Jordanis oras praevia Charles Coffin (1676-1749) translated John Chandler (1806-1876)
Music: WINCHESTER NEW William Henry Havergal (1793-1870)

OFFERTORY HYMN

All hail the power of Jesus' name
let angels prostrate fall;
bring forth the royal diadem,
and crown him Lord of all.

Crown him, ye morning stars of light,
who fixed this floating ball;
now hail the Strength of Israel's might
and crown him Lord of all.

Ye prophets who our freedom won,
ye searchers, great and small,
by whom the work of truth is done,
now crown him Lord of all.

Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
ye ransomed of the fall,
hail him who saves you by his grace,
and crown him Lord of all.

Hail him, the heir of David's line,
whom David Lord did call,
the God incarnate, Man divine,
and crown him Lord of all.

Sinners whose love can ne'er forget
the wormwood and the gall,
go, spread your trophies at his feet,
and crown him Lord of all.

Let every tribe and every tongue
before him prostrate fall,
and shout in universal song
the crownèd Lord of all.

Words: Edward Perronet (1726-92) alt. John Rippon (1751-1836) and others
Music: MILES LANE William Shrubsole (1760-1806)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Christ is the world's true light,
its Captain of salvation,
the Day-star clear and bright
of every man and nation;
new life, new hope awakes,
where'er men own his sway;
freedom her bondage breaks,
and night is turned to day.

In Christ all races meet,
their ancient feuds forgetting,
the whole round world complete,
from sunrise to its setting:
when Christ is throned as Lord,
men shall forsake their fear,
to ploughshare bear the sword,
to pruning-hook the spear.

One Lord, in one great Name
unite us all who own thee;
cast out our pride and shame
that hinder to enthrone thee;
the world has waited long,
has travailed long in pain;
to heal its ancient wrong,
come, Prince of Peace, and reign. Amen.

Words: George Wallace Briggs (1875-1959)
Music: NUN DANKET Johann Crüger (1598-1662)

Christian Aid - It is wonderful to be able to announce that the amount collected by the Cathedral community in Christian Aid Week is just over £14,000! This is a marvellous effort, and we are so grateful to everyone who has contributed in any way to this exceptional result. A detailed breakdown of the money raised by each activity can be found on the Christian Aid table at the back of the Cathedral, and all house-to-house collectors will receive the individual total for their street shortly. Thank you all so much for yet another wonderful effort this year. We are hugely grateful to you all for your support, and we look forward to another successful year in 2019.

Friends Festival Dinner - JULY 1st, IS THE LAST DAY to buy a ticket to attend the Friends Festival Dinner (7th July). Do join us and enjoy a three course meal, a wine reception and a special talk by our after dinner speaker, Canon Graham Holcombe. Tickets are available from Linda Quinn on Sundays, or 74 Pencisely Rd Llandaff CF5 1DH (sae please) £29 each, payable to Friends of Llandaff Cathedral. Don't miss out!!

Cathedral Choir Concert - On Friday 13th July at 7pm the Cathedral Choir will be giving their annual concert. This event marks the end of another academic year and will also come at the end of a busy week of recording for the first CD of the choir in many years. The concert will include favourite choral music from throughout the liturgical year including Handel's Coronation Anthem Zadok the Priest, Lewis The souls of the righteous Gjeilo Ubi caritas and other works by composers including Todd, Lauridsen, Vaughan Williams and Elgar. Tickets can be purchased on the door and will be priced at £10, £8 concessions and £5 students. The Cathedral Choir Association will be serving drinks at the close of the concert and we will be bidding farewell to six boys who leave the choir at the end of the term. Please do come, and please do encourage others to do likewise – you won't be disappointed. Stephen Moore
