We welcome back our Cathedral Choirs from their summer break

New worshippers are especially welcome and are invited to make themselves known to the clergy

Collect

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love: grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the Gospel that, always abiding in you, they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Isaiah 35. 4-7a

Say to those who are of a fearful heart, 'Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you.'

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.

For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 146

1 Praise ye the Lord. Praise the Lord O my soul:

while I live will I praise the Lord.

2 Yea as long as I have any being:

I will sing praises unto my God.

3 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man:

for there is no I help in them.

4 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turn again to his earth:

and in that day all his thoughts perish.

5 Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help:

and whose hope is in the Lord his God.

6 Who made heaven and earth, the sea and all that therein is:

who keepeth his promise for ever.

7 Who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong, and feedeth the hungry:

the Lord looseth men out of prison.

8 The Lord giveth sight to the blind:

the Lord helpeth them that are bowed down, the Lord loveth the righteous.

9 The Lord careth for them that are strangers in the land, he sustaineth the fatherless and widow: as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it upside down.

10 The Lord shall be King for evermore:

even thy God O Zion throughout all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

A reading from the Letter of Saint James

James 2. 1-10, 14-17

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favouritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, 'Have a seat here, please', while to the one who is poor you say, 'Stand there', or, 'Sit at my feet', have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonoured the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you? You do well if you really fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill', and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Mark.

Mark 7. 24-37

Glory to you, O Lord.

From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophoenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, 'Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs.' But she answered him, 'Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs.' Then he said to her, 'For saying that, you may go - the demon has left your daughter.' So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, 'Ephphatha', that is, 'Be opened.' And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, 'He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMNS AT THE 11AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
him serve with fear, his praise forth tell,
come ye before him, and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
without our aid he did us make;
we are his folk, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto;
praise, laud, and bless his name always,
for it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good;
his mercy is for ever sure;
his truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
the God whom heaven and earth adore,
from men and from the angel-host
be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

Words: William Kethe, (fl 1559 d1594)
Music: OLD 100TH Genevan Psalter (1551)

OFFERTORY HYMN

God is Love: let heav'n adore him;
God is Love: let earth rejoice;
let creation sing before him,
and exalt him with one voice.
He who laid the earth's foundation,
he who spread the heav'ns above,
he who breathes through all creation,
he is Love, eternal Love.

God is Love: and is enfolding
all the world in one embrace;
his unfailing grasp is holding
every child of every race.
And when human hearts are breaking
under sorrow's iron rod,
then they find that selfsame aching deep within the heart of God.

God is Love, and, though with blindness
sin afflicts our human hearts,
God's eternal lovingkindness
holding, guiding, grace imparts.
Sin and death and hell shall never o'er us final triumph gain;
God is Love, so Love for ever o'er the universe must reign.

Words: Timothy Rees (1874-1939)
Music: BLAENWERN William Penfro Rowlands (1860-1937)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

I heard the voice of Jesus say:
'come unto me and rest;
lay down, thou weary one, lay down
thy head upon my breast.'
I came to Jesus as I was,
weary and worn and sad,
I found in him a resting-place,
and he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say:
'behold, I freely give
the living water; thirsty one,
stoop down and drink and live.'
I came to Jesus, and I drank
of that life-giving stream;
my thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
and now I live in him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say:
'I am this dark world's Light;
look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
and all thy day be bright.'
I looked to Jesus, and I found
in him my star, my sun;
and in that light of life I'll walk,
till travelling days are done.

Words: Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)
Music: KINGSFOLD Lucy Etheldred Broadwood (1858-1929)

NOTICES

Organ Spectacular - On Saturday 15th September at 7pm our Cathedral Organists David Thomas and Stephen Moore will be giving a concert entitled Organ Spectacular. This event is intended to raise funds for the Cathedral Choir's forthcoming tour to Sweden in July 2019. The concert will be made up of favourite pieces for the organ, including works by Bach, Vaughan Williams, Walton and Widor, amongst many others. Many thanks to those who made requests for particular pieces to be played. The final programme is now available on the Cathedral website. Please do come along for what promises to be a fun-filled musical evening. Admission will be FREE with a retiring collection.

Friends Open Doors Days – Friday 14th - Local Schools Drawing Event and Saturday 15th September Open Day at the Cathedral. Please encourage your friends and family to come to our Open Day events on Saturday 15th September. 12.30pm Organ recital/demonstration Stephen Moore and David Thomas. 1.30pm Open archives.

2.10pm Guided tour of the Cathedral.

3.15pm and 4pm Bell tower tours (must be booked on 029 2075 1009).

Events are happening all over Llandaff from 10th- 22nd September so if you have not had a leaflet delivered, please take one from the West Doors today. Many thanks to everyone who has delivered leaflets to homes throughout our Parish.

Special Thanks - Judith Thompson is stepping down as chairperson of the Social Committee. We thank Judith for the commitment and hard work that she expended in this important role.

A New Children's Area – (pre-school) is available in the South Aisle near the shop. The David Chapel is no longer available for this use.

New Arrangements for Sunday School – Please see the letter in Prebendal House or speak to Ged Bates or Fr Edward.

The Penrhys Pilgrimage – The Working Party are hoping that school children will plant some of the herbs featured in the Reredos in the Lady Chapel along the pilgrims' route from Llandaff to Penrhys. "We have produced notes about these herbs that we will send out to the schools and make available to the Cathedral. We would love a high resolution photograph of the Reredos. Does anyone have one please?"

If you do have a photo you're willing to share, please send it to ppwp2020@gmail.com or helenlloydjonesradyr@gmail.com
