THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Christ is the King! O friends, rejoice;
brothers and sisters, with one voice
let the world know he is your choice.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

O magnify the Lord, and raise anthems of joy and holy praise
for Christ's brave saints of ancient days.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

They with a faith forever new followed the King, and round him drew thousands of faithful servants true.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

O Christian women, Christian men,
all the world over, seek again
the way disciples followed then.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Christ through all ages is the same:
place the same hope in his great name,
with the same faith his word proclaim.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Let love's unconquerable might your scattered companies unite in service to the Lord of light.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

So shall God's will on earth be done,
new lamps be lit, new tasks begun,
and the whole church at last be one.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Collect

Almighty Father, who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord: give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 9. 1-6

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 30

1 I will magnify thee O Lord, for thou hast set me up:
and hast not suffered my foes to triumph over me.

2 O Lord my God I cried unto thee:
and thou hast made me whole.

3 Thou Lord hast brought my soul back from the land of death:
thou hast saved my life from among them that go down to the pit.

4 Sing praises unto the Lord O ye his servants:
and give thanks unto him at the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye; in his good pleasure is life:
heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said 'I shall never be removed:
thou Lord of thy goodness hast made my hill so strong.'

7 Thou didst turn thy face from me:
and I was sore distressed.

8 Then cried I unto thee O Lord:
even to the Lord did I make my supplication;

9 'What profit is there in my blood:
if I go down to the pit?

10 'Shall the dust give thanks unto thee:
or shall it declare thy faithfulness?

11 'Hear O Lord and have mercy upon me:
O Lord be thou my helper.'

12 Thou hast turned my lamentation into dancing:

thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness.
13 Therefore shall my heart sing of thy praise without ceasing:
O Lord my God I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

A reading from the Book of Revelation

Revelation 5.11 - 14

Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!' Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, 'To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might for ever and ever!' And the four living creatures said, 'Amen!' And the elders fell down and worshipped.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John.

John 21. 1-19

Glory to you, O Lord.

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;
he whose word cannot be broken
formed thee for his own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded,
what can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See, the streams of living waters,
springing from eternal love,
well supply thy sons and daughters,
and all fear of want remove.
Who can faint while such a river
ever flows their thirst to assuagegrace which, like the Lord the giver,
never fails from age to age?

Round each habitation hovering,
see the cloud and fire appear
for a glory and a covering, showing that the Lord is near.
Thus deriving from their banner,
light by night and shade by day;
safe they feed upon the manna
which he gives them when they pray.

Saviour, if of Zion's city
I through grace a member am,
let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in thy name.
Fading is the worldling's pleasure.
all his boasted pomp and show;
solid joys and lasting treasure
none but Zion's children know.

POST COMMUNION HYMN

We have a gospel to proclaim,
good news for all throughout the earth;
the gospel of a Saviour's name:
we sing his glory, tell his worth.

Tell of his birth at Bethlehem
not in a royal house or hall
but in a stable dark and dim,
the Word made flesh, a light for all.

Tell of his death at Calvary,
hated by those he came to save,
in lonely suffering on the Cross;
for all he loved his life he gave.

Tell of that glorious Easter morn:
empty the tomb, for he was free.
He broke the power of death and hell
that we might share his victory.

Tell of his reign at God's right hand,
by all creation glorified.
He sends his Spirit on his Church
to live for him, the Lamb who died.

Now we rejoice to name him King:
Jesus is Lord of all the earth.
This gospel-message we proclaim:
we sing his glory, tell his worth.

NOTICES

Lent Appeal – The amount collected for Embrace the Middle East has reached the wonderful total of just over £3,500. This was made up of just over £1,100 from the Lent lunches and the rest from the envelopes collected over the period, of which £2,120 will attract additional Gift Aid. The charity is extremely grateful for the remarkable generosity of the congregations at the Cathedral and for the work of all those who provided and attended the very successful Tuesday lunches. Thank you all so much. David Smith.

Installation of Canon Chancellor – This afternoon, during Choral Evensong, the Bishop will Install and Licence the new Canon Chancellor, the Reverend Dr Jan van der Lely. We hope that a large proportion of the Cathedral community will be here to welcome Canon Jan, her family and friends. Tea will be served after the service in Prebendal House. We look forward to Canon Jan's ministry amongst us in Llandaff.

Cathedral Shop – We are greatly in need of some volunteers who can offer a couple of hours a week to help out in the shop. Several of us are on holiday during May so we are struggling to ensure the shop remains open. Please contact Mary Madsen on 02920 611504.

Flower Guild Summer Supper & Quiz - Friday 10th May 7.00pm in Prebendal House. Tickets are available from members of the Guild which are priced at £15 to include a two course supper, and there will also be a raffle. Please contact Philippa Hallinan or Barbara Treharne. The event is open to everyone – congregation and friends. Please come and support this social occasion. Contact the Cathedral Office for questions and tickets.

The Guild of St Teilo – Our next meeting will be held on Monday May 13th at 2pm in the Parish Hall. Visitors are always most welcome to join us for this and any of our meetings.

Mrs Daphne Townsend has lately stepped down from the role as Chairperson of the Guild, a position she has held most successfully for a number of years. As a guild we have appreciated her friendly, personal approach to leading our gatherings. Her unflappable, easy-going guidance and contagious sense of humour has been much appreciated and there is no doubt that she has made a significant contribution to both the vitality and the strength of the Guild. Thank you Daphne, a job well done indeed! Katherine MacDonald

Christian Aid 2019 – May 12th – 19th Christian Aid week is approaching and the Llandaff committee are very grateful for everyone's ongoing dedication to our door to door campaign. Collectors Packs are available at the West Door of the Cathedral.

On Sunday 12th May Christian Aid Week Launch. Cynan Llwyd, the Regional Co-ordinator for South and Mid Wales will join our Services and we will hold a Sunday School Toys and Books Table Top sale at Prebendal House during Parish Tea & Coffee along with Cake Stall. Our annual War on Want (WOW) lunch is on Wednesday 15th May, £5 per head, all welcome. The Cathedral will hold a Llandaff Schools' Christian Aid Awareness Service at the cathedral on Thursday 16th May while on Friday 17th Llandaff City School will host a Quiz night. The Sunday School Toys and Books Table Top Sale & Cake Sale at Parish Coffee/Tea will take place on Sunday 19th May .
