THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Ye that know the Lord is gracious,
Ye for whom a Corner stone
Stands, of God elect and precious,
Laid that ye may build thereon;
See that on that sure foundation
Ye a living temple raise,
Towers that may tell forth salvation,
Walls that may re-echo praise.

Living stones, by God appointed
Each to his allotted place,
Kings and priests, by God anointed,
Shall ye not declare his grace?
Ye, a royal generation,
Tell the tidings of your birth,
Tidings of a new creation
To an old and weary earth.

Tell the praise of him who called you
Out of darkness into light,
Broke the fetters that enthralled you,
Gave you freedom, peace and sight:
Tell the tale of sins forgiven,
Strength renewed and hope restored,
Till the earth, in tune with heaven,
Praise and magnify the Lord!

Collect

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we finally lose not the things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy 30. 9-14

And the Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the Lord will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the Lord your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 25 (vv. 1-10)

1 Unto thee O Lord will I lift up my soul; my God I have put my trust in thee:

O let me not be disappointed, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

2 For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed:

but such as deal untruly shall be put to confusion.

3 Shew me thy ways O Lord: and teach me thy paths.

4 Lead me forth in thy truth and teach me:

for thou art the God of my salvation; in thee hath been my hope all the day long.

5 Call to remembrance O Lord thy tender mercies:

and thy loving-kindnesses, which have been ever of old.

6 O remember not the sins and offences of my youth:

but according to thy mercy think thou upon me O Lord in thy goodness.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord:

therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that are meek shall he guide in right paths:

and such as are gentle, them shall he teach his way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth:

unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

10 For thy name's sake O Lord:

be merciful unto my sin, for it is great.

A reading from St Paul's Letter to the Colossians

Colossians 1. 1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. ‘Teacher,’ he said, ‘what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ He said to him, ‘What is written in the law? What do you read there?’ He answered, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.’ And he said to him, ‘You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.’

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, ‘And who is my neighbour?’ Jesus replied, ‘A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, “Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.” Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?’ He said, ‘The one who showed him mercy.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Immortal Love, forever full,
Forever flowing free,
Forever shared, forever whole,
A never-ebbing sea!

Our outward lips confess the name
All other names above;
Love only knoweth whence it came,
And comprehendeth love.

We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down:
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For Him no depths can drown.

But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is He;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

The healing of His seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

Through Him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame,
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with His name.

Alone, O Love ineffable!
Thy saving name is given;
To turn aside from Thee is hell,
To walk with Thee is heaven!

Words: John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892)
Music: BISHOPTHORPE Jeremiah Clarke (1743-1809)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Soldiers of Christ, arise,
And put your armour on,
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through his eternal Son;

Strong in the Lord of hosts,
And in his mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

Stand then in his great might,
With all his strength endued;
But take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God;

Leave no unguarded place,
No weakness of the soul;
Take every virtue, every grace,
And fortify the whole:

From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray,
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day;

Then having all things done
And every conflict passed,
You may o'ercome through Christ alone,
And stand complete at last.

NOTICES

Embrace the Middle East Service 25th September 5.30pm - an event created in support of our Lent Charity. The evening begins with an evensong, followed by a buffet in Prebendal House. It ends with the Embrace Event in the Cathedral, with a guest speaker. Tickets are FREE, but we encourage you to register your attendance on Eventbrite and/or <https://www.embraceme.org/events> . We look forward to seeing you all there!

School tour guides - could you help? We have a number of school visits to the cathedral booked in and are hoping to attract more schools in the future. We are, therefore, looking for more volunteers to join our team! Please speak to Canon Jan or Katharine MacDonald if you are interested.

Confirmation Preparation - Any adults who are interested in being confirmed please contact Canon Jan. Confirmation is a public commitment to faith, when we affirm for ourselves the promises made at baptism on our behalf. Please do speak to Canon Jan or any of the clergy about it.

Welsh School of Architecture, Cardiff – Year 4 Projects Set at Llandaff Cathedral: Cardiff University students have been working on a project for a music facility based at Llandaff Cathedral. A selection of student's projects are currently being displayed in the St David Chapel. Visitors are more than welcome and we encourage you to provide your opinions on the Post-It notes provided.

Linen and Vestment – Thanks to those who attend. The group will not meet on July 16th and 23rd July 2019. The next meeting will be on Tuesday 3rd September 2019.

Llandaff Parish Mothers' Union - The last meeting before the Summer Break in on Monday 15th July. The Opening Eucharist will be held in the Lady Chapel, on Monday 2nd September at 2.15 pm , when our Chaplain Canon Mari Price will officiate. The MU meetings are held in The Parish Hall starting at 12.15 pm. We look forward to welcoming members, friends and visitors at our meetings.

Cardiff Foodbank – Thank you so much for the kind donation of 86.7kg of food donated by Llandaff Cathedral between April-June 2019. You are helping us to make a difference in the lives of people in real need and we couldn't do it without you.
