THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;
he whose word cannot be broken
formed thee for his own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded,
what can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See, the streams of living waters,
springing from eternal love,
well supply thy sons and daughters,
and all fear of want remove.
Who can faint while such a river ever flows their thirst to assuagegrace which, like the Lord the giver, never fails from age to age?

Saviour, if of Zion's city
I through grace a member am,
let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in thy name.
Fading is the worldling's pleasure.
all his boasted pomp and show;
solid joys and lasting treasure
none but Zion's children know.

Words: John Newton (1725-1807)
Music: AUSTRIA Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809)

Collect

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

Proverbs 25. 6-7

Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence or stand in the place of the great; for it is better to be told, 'Come up here', than to be put lower in the presence of a noble.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 112

1. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord:
he hath great delight in his commandments.
2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth:
the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.
3. Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house:
and his righteousness endureth for ever.
4. Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness:
he is merciful, loving, and righteous.
5. A good man is merciful, and lendeth:
and will guide his words with discretion.
6. For he shall never be moved:
and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.
7. He will not be afraid of any evil tidings:
for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.
8. His heart is established, and will not shrink:
until he see his desire upon his enemies.
9. He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor:
and his righteousness remaineth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.
10. The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him:
he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away;
the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Hebrews 13. 1–8, 15,16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, ‘I will never leave you or forsake you.’ So we can say with confidence, ‘The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?’

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke.

Luke 14. 1, 7-14

Glory to you, O Lord.

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. ‘When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, “Give this person your place”, and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, “Friend, move up higher”; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.’

He said also to the one who had invited him, ‘When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN

How shall I sing that Majesty which angels do admire?
Let dust in dust and silence lie;
sing, sing, ye heavenly choir.
Thousands of thousands stand around thy throne, O God most high;
ten thousand times ten thousand sound
thy praise; but who am I?

Thy brightness unto them appears,
whilst I thy footsteps trace;
a sound of God comes to my ears;
but they behold thy face:
they sing because thou art their sun:
Lord, send a beam on me;
for where heaven is but once begun,
there alleluias be.

Enlighten with faith's light my heart,
in flame it with love's fire;
then shall I sing and bear a part
with that celestial choir.
I shall, I fear, be dark and cold,
with all my fire and light;
yet when thou dost accept their gold,
Lord, treasure up my mite.

How great a being Lord, is thine,
which doth all beings keep!
Thy knowledge is the only line
to sound so vast a deep:
thou art a sea without a shore,
a sun without a sphere;
thy time is now and evermore,
thy place is everywhere.

Words: John Mason (c.1645-1694)
Music: COE FEN Kenneth Nicholson Naylor (1931-97)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord!
Unnumbered blessings give my spirit voice;
Tender to me the promise of his word;
In God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his name!
Make known his might, the deeds his arm has done;
His mercy sure, from age to age the same;
His holy name, the Lord, the mighty One.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might!
Powers and dominions lay their glory by;
Proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight,
The hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word!
Firm is his promise, and his mercy sure.
Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord
To children's children and forever more!

David Briggs Organ Recital – On Saturday 7th September at 7.30pm we welcome the internationally renowned organist David Briggs to give a recital. David is currently Artist in Residence at the Cathedral of St John the Divine in New York City, but previously held posts in the UK at King's College Cambridge, Hereford, Truro and Gloucester Cathedrals. This event forms part of OrganFest which will be taking place in venues all over Cardiff from Friday 6th to Sunday 8th September. David's recital at the cathedral will include music by Saint-Saens, Bach, Beethoven and Dupré in the first half. For the second half of the programme David will improvise large scale work based around Welsh themes which will be submitted to him only minutes before. It promises to be a first-rate recital which is also being recorded for broadcast on BBC Radio 3. Further details about OrganFest and tickets for all events can be found at www.organfest.org.uk Embrace the Middle East Service 25th September 5.30pm - an event created in support of our Lent Charity. The evening begins with Choral Evensong, followed by a buffet in Prebendal House. It ends with the Embrace Event in the Cathedral, with a guest speaker. Tickets are FREE, but we encourage you to register your attendance on Eventbrite and/or www.embraceme.org/events. We look forward to seeing you all there!

Friends Open Doors Day - Leaflets are available today, Sunday 1st, for delivery to homes in the Parish detailing our Friends Open Doors day which takes place on Saturday 14th September. This is a great opportunity to invite people to come to the Cathedral. If you are a regular member of our delivery team, or someone who can help this time, Please see Wendy Harding, Judith Thompson or Linda Quinn TODAY for your leaflets.
