THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Now thank we all our God,
with hearts and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms
has blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love,
and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God
through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
who reigns in highest heaven,
to Father and to Son
and Spirit now be given,
the one eternal God
whom heaven and earth adore;
for so it was, is now,
and shall be evermore. Amen.

Words: Nun danket alle Gott Martin Rinkart (1586-1649) translated by Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878)

Music: NUN DANKET Praxis Pietatis Melica (1647 Crüger)

Collect

Almighty God, whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence: give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Amos

Amos 8. 4-7

Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, 'When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practise deceit with false balances, buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat.'

The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 113

1. Praise ye the Lord. Sing praises O ye servants of the Lord:
O praise the name of the Lord.
2. Blessed be the name of the Lord:
from this time forth for evermore.
3. The Lord's name be praised:
from the rising up of the sun unto the going down of the same.
4. The Lord is high above all nations:
and his glory above the heavens.
5. Who is like unto the Lord our God, that sitteth enthroned on high:
yet looketh down to behold the things that are in heaven and earth?
6. He taketh up the lowly out of the dust:
and lifteth the poor from the dunghill,
7. That he may set him with princes:
even with the princes of his people.
8. He giveth the barren woman a home wherein to dwell:
and maketh her to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the Lord.

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to Timothy

1 Timothy 2. 1–7

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke.

Luke 16. 1-13

Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, “What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.” Then the manager said to himself, “What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.” So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, “How much do you owe my master?” He answered, “A hundred jugs of olive oil.” He said to him, “Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.” Then he asked another, “And how much do you owe?” He replied, “A hundred containers of wheat.” He said to him, “Take your bill and make it eighty.” And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

‘Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Lord, for the years your love has kept and guided,
urged and inspired us, cheered us on our way,
sought us and saved us, pardoned and provided:

Lord of the years, we bring our thanks today.

Lord, for that word, the word of life which fires us,
speaks to our hearts and sets our souls ablaze,
teaches and trains, rebukes us and inspires us:
Lord of the word, receive Your people's praise.

Lord, for our land in this our generation,
spirits oppressed by pleasure, wealth and care:
for young and old, for commonwealth and nation,
Lord of our land, be pleased to hear our prayer.

Lord, for our world when we disown and doubt him,
loveless in strength, and comfortless in pain,
hungry and helpless, lost indeed without him:
Lord of the world, we pray that Christ may reign.

Lord for ourselves; in living power remake us -
self on the cross and Christ upon the throne,
past put behind us, for the future take us:
Lord of our lives, to live for Christ alone.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b.1926)

Music: Michael Baughen (b.1930)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Let all the world in every corner sing:

My God and King!

The heavens are not too high,

His praise may thither fly;

The earth is not too low,

His praises there may grow.

Let all the world in every corner sing:

My God and King!

Let all the world in every corner sing:

My God and King!

The church with psalms must shout,

No door can keep them out;

But above all, the heart

Must bear the longest part.

Let all the world in every corner sing:

My God and King!

Words: George Herbert (1593-1633)

Music: LUCKINGTON Basil Harwood (1859-1949)

Parish Stewards: From this Sunday 22nd September the Parish Stewards will wear a badge of office identifying them and their role. We are grateful that this development has been supported by a generous donation from Tony Olavesen in memory of his wife Carol. We would also like to highlight the change in Church Wardens. Dr John Kenyon has now been appointed as the new Vicar's Warden.

Harvest Supper – This year's Harvest Supper will take place in Prebendal House on Friday 4th October at 7pm. Tickets will soon be available from the Cathedral Office and from the Virgers. The cost of the tickets will be £15 per person – included in this price is a meal. However, please bring your own alcohol and soft drinks as only water is provided. All are welcome to join us!

Calling all musicians - We are hoping to find an instrumental group to play at the 9am Eucharist on a regular basis (roughly monthly). Players of any instrument at grade 4 or above, of any age, are warmly invited to take part in this. The first service to play at will be Harvest Festival on Sunday 6th October, 9am, with a rehearsal on Saturday 5th October, 5pm-6pm in Prebendal House. This group will complement the work of the choir in providing music for our worship. Please contact David Thomas on davidthomas@llandaffcathedral.org.uk for more information or to sign up for this. Players should bring their own music stand if at all possible.

Holy Communion - If you are interested you might like to come to the Confirmation Preparation Course which has just begun. Joining the course is not a commitment to be confirmed; it is OK to start if you are not yet sure. If you are not yet baptised, this too can be arranged. We meet at 11am on Saturdays in Prebendal House. Contact Canon Jan for more information, at chancellor@llandaffcathedral.org.uk.

Faith into action! Would you like to be part of a group exploring ways of putting our faith into practice? Canon Jan is calling together a new Community Engagement group whose brief will be to explore ways we could respond to the needs of our community, local and further afield. Contact Canon Jan for more information and to be kept in touch with this initiative (chancellor@llandaffcathedral.org.uk).

Between 1869 and 1948 over 100,000 children of all ages were emigrated to Canada from the UK as indentured farm workers and domestics. The tribute aims to remember them on this day whilst also raising awareness of their plight.

We invite people to remember these children, and our Beacon of Light Tribute in their prayers.

Cathedral Choir Concert 18th October, 7.00pm – The Cathedral Choir will join forces with the renowned orchestra The City of London Sinfonia as part of their 2019 Cathedrals Tour. The concert will include music by contemporary composers Vasks and Tabakova as well as Byrd, Lauridsen, Parsons and Stopford. Tickets are on sale via www.cls.co.uk.
