Collect

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: teach us to offer ourselves to your service, that here we may have your peace, and in the world to come may see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Second Book of Kings

2 Kings 5. 1-3, 7-15

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.'

When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.'

But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.' So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.' But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, 'I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?' He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, 'Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, "Wash, and be clean"?' So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, 'Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel.'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 111

1 - 10

Response: The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

Alleluia. I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the faithful and in the congregations.

The works of the Lord are great, sought out by all who delight in him.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

His work is full of majesty and honour and his righteousness endures for ever.

He appointed a memorial for his marvellous deeds;

the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

He gave food to those who feared him; he is ever mindful of his covenant.

He showed his people the power of his works in giving them the heritage of the nations.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

The works of his hands are truth and justice; all his commandments are sure.

They stand fast for ever and ever; they are done in truth and equity.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever;

holy and awesome is his name.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have those who live by it; his praise endures for ever.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

A reading from St Paul's Second Letter to Timothy

2 Timothy 2. 8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke.

Luke 17. 11-19

Glory to you, O Lord.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

NOTICES

Cathedral Choir Concert 18th October, 7.00pm – The Cathedral Choir will join forces with the renowned orchestra The City of London Sinfonia as part of their 2019 Cathedrals Tour. The concert will include music by contemporary composers Vasks and Tabakova as well as Byrd, Lauridsen, Parsons and Stopford. Tickets are on sale via www.cls.co.uk. Tickets may still be available on the night, but it's best to order in advance. It promises to be a concert with a twist as the audience can follow the performers around the building. Don't miss it!

Food donations to 'Rainbow of Hope' - did you know that we support this charity based in Splott for homeless, addicts, asylum seekers and all in need? Donations of food items can be put in the plastic crate on the window ledge in Prebendal House lower room at any time, and are delivered monthly to the charity. Mari Price does the deliveries but would welcome help. Currently the charity is appealing to raise £150,000 to buy their premises as they are likely to lose their lease in January. If you would like to help there is a 'Just Giving' page at: <https://www.justgiving.com/raidbowofhope-paradiserun>

Living in love and faith - the 2020 annual conference of Modern Church, takes place 13th-15th July. This conference will show how the Christian gospel affirms and welcomes all, regardless of identity, gender or sexuality. Full details can be found on the Modern Church website at www.modernchurch.org.uk where online booking is now open for the conference. Canon Jan is a Trustee of this organisation and can give more information.

Western Beacons Mountain Search and Rescue Charity Event – Coffee morning to raise funds for The Western Beacons Mountain Search and Rescue Team to be held in the Parish Hall on Friday 25th October 2019 from 10.15 am to 12noon, Bring and Buy/Cakes/Preserves/Handmade Cards/Crafts/Raffle. Admission £1. to include, coffee/tea/biscuits. Further details from Zinnia Lewis.

Saint Teilo's Guild - Our next meeting is on Monday October 14th at 2pm in the Parish Hall, when Debra John will be talking about Life as an Edwardian Maid. Visitors as usual are always welcome to our gatherings. Katharine MacDonald Chair

Christian Aid Volunteers Special Thank You Tea Party - All those who helped the Llandaff Cathedral Christian Aid fundraising activity this year, should have received an invitation to our Thank You Tea Party, which will start at approximately 4.20pm (straight after Evensong) on Sunday 20 October. To confirm your attendance or obtain more details, please contact Kate Bates preferably by email: kathrynbates@talktalk.net or landline 02921 152465. Please note this is a thank you event and not a fundraiser.
