It is to be enjoyed but, please, not applauded.*

New worshippers are especially welcome and are invited to make themselves known to the clergy.

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

'Lift up your hearts!' We lift them, Lord, to thee;
here at thy feet none other may we see:
'Lift up your hearts!' E'en so, with one accord,
we lift them up, we lift them to the Lord.

Above the level of the former years,
the mire of sin, the slough of guilty fears,
the mist of doubt, the blight of love's decay,
O Lord of light, lift all our hearts to-day.

Above the swamps of subterfuge and shame,
the deeds, the thoughts, that honour may not name,
the halting tongue that dares not tell the whole,
O Lord of truth, lift every Christian soul.

Lift every gift that thou thyself hast given:
low lies the best till lifted up to heaven;
low lie the bounding heart, the teeming brain,
till, sent from God, they mount to God again.

Then, as the trumpet-call in after years,
'lift up your hearts!' rings pealing in our ears,
still shall those hearts respond with full accord,
'We lift them up, we lift them to the Lord.'

Words: Henry Montagu Butler (1833-1918)
Music: WOODLANDS Walter Greatorex (1877-1949)

Collect

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that, through patience and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

Isaiah 45. 22-25

Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other. By myself I have sworn, from my mouth has gone forth in righteousness a word that shall not return: 'To me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.'

Only in the Lord, it shall be said of me, are righteousness and strength; all who were incensed against him shall come to him and be ashamed. In the Lord all the offspring of Israel shall triumph and glory.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 119 (VV129-136)

129. Wonderful are thy testimonies:
therefore doth my soul keep them.
130. When thy word goeth forth it giveth light:
it giveth understanding unto the simple.
131. I open my mouth and draw in my breath for joy:
because I long for thy commandments.
132. O look thou upon me and be merciful unto me:
as thou art wont to do unto those that love thy name.
133. Order my steps according to thy word:
and so shall no wickedness have dominion over me.
134. O deliver me from the wrongful dealings of men:
and so shall I keep thy precepts.
135. Shew the light of thy countenance upon thy servant:
and teach me thy statutes.
136. Mine eyes gush out with water:
because men keep not thy law.

A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans.

Romans 15. 1– 6

We who are strong ought to put up with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Each of us must please our neighbour for the good purpose of building up the neighbour. For Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, ‘The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.’ For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope. May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke.

Luke 4. 16-24

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: ‘The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favour.’ And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, ‘Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.’ All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, ‘Is not this Joseph’s son?’ He said to them, ‘Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, “Doctor, cure yourself!” And you will say, “Do here also in your home town the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.”’ And he said, ‘Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet’s home town.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Just as I am, without one plea
but that thy blood was shed for me,
and that thou bidst me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, and waiting not to rid my soul of one dark blot,
to thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, though tossed about with many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings within and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve:
because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am (thy love unknown has broken every barrier down),
now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, of that free love
the breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Words: Charlotte Elliott (1789-1871)
Music: SAFFRON WALDEN Arthur Henry Brown (1830-1926)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Father of heaven, whose love profound a ransom for our souls hath found,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us thy pardoning love extend.

Almighty Son, incarnate Word,
our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us thy saving grace extend.

Eternal Spirit, by whose breath
the soul is raised from sin and death,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us thy quickening power extend.

Thrice Holy! Father, Spirit, Son;
mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
grace, pardon, life to us extend.

Words: Edward Cooper (1770-1833)
Music: RIVAULX John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

NOTICES

Saturday Eucharist - A number of older members in our congregation have described the difficulties they experience walking up and down the hill to the Cathedral. We can't move the Cathedral of course! But we are going to try, on an experimental basis, holding a Eucharist in the Parish Hall each Saturday morning at 9.30am rather than the Teilo Chapel. This new arrangement will begin the 2nd November.

Bible Reading Notes – Would you like to use Bible reading notes with a short daily passage, explanation and prayer? These can be ordered from the Bible Reading Fellowship through Jean Wines (contact her on 029 2056 5517).

Save the Children Concert 7th November 7pm – We would like to invite you all to our centenary concert. Save the children have been helping children for 100 years, and with your support we hope it to be another 100! Please support us by attending our concert on the 7th. You wouldn't just be funding our charity, but also helping those in need. Tickets are £20 and available at Garlands and <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/save-the-children-concert-tickets-74278867091>. We looking forward to seeing you there!

Saint Teilo's Guild - We are having a fashion show from the Edinburgh Woollen Shop this week and hope that many of you will be able to support our rather nervous models! The show will take place on Monday October 28th at 2pm in the Parish Hall. Visitors are always welcome.

Cardiff Foodbank - We are just writing to say thank you so much for the kind donation of 221.6 kg of food donated by Llandaff Cathedral to Cardiff Foodbank from July to September 2019. This will enable us to feed 19 individuals for three days. You are helping us to make a difference in the lives of people in real need and we couldn't do it without you.

Embrace the Middle East - a Quiet Day has been arranged for supporters of this Christian charity, following its concert last month. It will be taking place at Nicholaston House on Gower next Saturday 2nd November. Places are still available and details of how to book are obtainable by email from info@embraceme.org or by phoning 01494 897950.

Bible Study - Canon Jan plans to start a new group to discuss how we interpret Scripture and put it into practice in our own lives, looking particularly at the Sunday readings. If you would be interested in this please contact her; the group is likely to run on Saturday mornings.

Can you help? - Do you have a spare room or space to take in a female asylum-seeker from our congregation who will lose her current accommodation at the end of October? If so please speak to Canon Jan or any of the clergy.
