THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN

1 Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own:
Awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee,
and hail him as thy matchless King
through all eternity.

2 Crown him the Virgin's Son,
the God incarnate born,
whose arm those crimson trophies won
which now his brow adorn:
fruit of that mystic Rose,
as of that Rose the Stem;
the Root whence mercy ever flows,
the Babe of Bethlehem.

3 Crown him the Lord of Love!
Behold his hands and side,
rich wounds yet visible above
in beauty glorified:
no angel in the sky
can fully bear that sight,
but downward bends his burning eye
at mysteries so bright.

4 Crown him the Lord of peace, whose power a sceptre sways
from pole to pole, that wars may cease, absorbed in prayer and praise:
his reign shall know no end,
and round his pierced feet fair flowers of Paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

5 Crown him the Lord of years,
the Potentate of time, Creator of the rolling spheres,
ineffably sublime.
Glassed in a sea of light,
where everlasting waves
reflect his throne-the Infinite!
who lives-and loves-and saves.

Words: Matthew Bridges (1800-94), Alternative text, Godfrey Thring (1823-1903)
Music: DIADEMATA George Elvey (1816-1893)

Collect

Almighty God, in Christ you make all things new: transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives make known your heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Isaiah 49. 1-7

Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away! The Lord called me before I was born, while I was in my mother's womb he named me. He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away. And he said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.' But I said, 'I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my cause is with the Lord, and my reward with my God.'

And now the Lord says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honoured in the sight of the Lord, and my God has become my strength—he says, 'It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

Thus says the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers, 'Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the Lord, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 40 verses 1-11

- 1 I waited patiently for the Lord:
and he inclined unto me and heard my calling.
- 2 He brought me also out of the miry pit, out of the slime and clay:
and set my feet upon a rock and ordered my goings.
- 3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth:
even a thanksgiving unto our God.
- 4 Many shall see it and fear:
and shall put their trust in the Lord.
- 5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord:
and turned not unto the proud and to such as go about with lies.
- 6 O Lord my God, great are the wondrous works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward:
there is none that can be compared unto thee.
- 7 If I should declare them and speak of them:
they would be more than I am able to express.
- 8 Sacrifice and offering thou desirest not, but mine ears hast thou opened:
burnt-offering and sacrifice for sin hast thou not required.
- 9 Then said I 'Lo I come:
as in the volume of the book it is written for me;
- 10 'I delight to do thy will O my God:
yea thy law is within my heart.'
- 11 I have declared thy righteousness in the great congregation:
lo I will not refrain my lips O Lord, and that thou knowest.

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 1 Corinthians 1. 1-9

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind—just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John.

John 1. 29-42

Glory to you, O Lord.

The next day he saw Jesus coming towards him and declared, ‘Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, “After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.” I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.’ And John testified, ‘I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, “He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.” And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.’

The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, ‘Look, here is the Lamb of God!’ The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, ‘What are you looking for?’ They said to him, ‘Rabbi’ (which translated means ‘Teacher’), ‘where are you staying?’ He said to them, ‘Come and see.’ They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, ‘We have found the Messiah’ (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, ‘You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas’ (which is translated Peter).

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Just as I am, without one plea
but that thy blood was shed for me,
and that thou bidst me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, and waiting not to rid my soul of one dark blot,
to thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, though tossed about with many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings within and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve:
because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am (thy love unknown has broken every barrier down),
now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, of that free love
the breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Words: Charlotte Elliott (1789-1871)
Music: SAFFRON WALDEN Arthur Henry Brown (1830-1926)

POST COMMUNION HYMN

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad his wonderful name;
The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.

God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still he is nigh, his presence we have;
The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus our king.

'Salvation to God who sits on the throne!'
Let all cry aloud, and honour the Son;
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore, and give him his right:
All glory and power, all wisdom and might,
All honour and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never-ceasing, and infinite love.

NOTICES

The latest edition of Majestas is now available.

Helping others to get to Church: we are aware that there may be members of the Cathedral community who have difficulty getting to services either because of lack of transport or restricted mobility. The Churchwardens would like to hear from or about those for whom this is true and from those who may be able to offer assistance to them, at least on occasion. The wardens' contact details are at the end of these Weekly Notes.

Homeless Café: Our community engagement group are setting up this joint project with St John's Church in the City Centre. Anyone who might be interested in volunteering to help on a rota is invited to come to an information session on Monday 20th January at 10.30am in St. John's. The café will run weekly on Monday mornings from February. Please speak to Canon Jan if you are interested or have any questions about this.

Friends Annual Lunch 20th February 2020 12:30pm: Our annual lunch will be held at Cardiff Metropolitan University. There will be a two course lunch with coffee. Tickets are £18 for Friends and £21 for visitors. All are welcome! Cheques are payable to the Friends of Llandaff Cathedral. SAE please. Contact is Linda Quinn.

Flower Guild AGM – if you have been inspired by the arrangements this Christmas and would enjoy helping the Guild, do come along to our AGM on Wednesday 5th February 2020 in Prebendal House. Our annual subscription is £15. You can also become a 'flower friend' for £15. A new leaflet for 'flower friends' will be available at the meeting.

Chorister Experience Day – On Saturday 25th January we will be holding our first ever Experience Day for boys aged 6-9 who might be interested in being a chorister in the Cathedral Choir. The day will include a chance to explore the cathedral, play the organ and sing Evensong with the Cathedral Choir. More information can be found online and interest can be registered by emailing the Director of Music. Please do help to spread the word!

Christmas Greeting and Thanks from Embrace the Middle East: the charity (which was the beneficiary of the Cathedral's Lent Appeal) has sent a lovely Christmas greeting to us all. It is too long to reproduce here, but a copy is on the Charities Table at the back of the Cathedral. Do take a look at it to see how much our support is valued, and read the message of hope for work to come in the future. Thank you again for your generous donations to this excellent cause. David and Sue Smith.

The Advent Appeal 2019 raised the sum of just over £1,199 for #1FamilyCardiff, the Deanery of Llandaff initiative to house refugees from Syria. Work is currently underway on a house in Ely, and our donation will make a much-valued contribution both to the preparatory work and to support for the family when they arrive. Thank you very much to all who contributed so generously to the Appeal.

Bible reading group: Canon Jan's group meets on Thursday 6.30 pm -7.30 pm in Prebendal House. Please bring a Bible! The aim will be to discuss how we might apply the Sunday readings in our daily lives. Do come along and join us.

Llandaff Parish Branch Mothers' Union - The guest speaker at our meeting on Monday 20th January is Joan Williams, who will speak to us about Slavery. The meeting will start at 2.15 pm in the Parish Hall. Visitors and prospective members are most welcome to attend. Before this meeting there is a Committee Meeting in the Parish Hall to start at 12.30 please. Additionally, on 31st January The Wave of Prayer will take place in The Dyfrig Chapel, starting at 10.30 am.

The Majestas team would like to hear from you if you have a memorable recollection of Llandaff Cathedral - to commemorate the Cathedral's 900th anniversary this year we seek recollections old and new that you may have of it - this could be a personal recollection, one that has been shared with you by a family member, or one that you may have come across in your own research.... A prize will be awarded to the most memorable entry - Editor's choice - and published in the Dear Editor section of Majestas in our editions for 2020. Send your entry to the editor by email at majestasmagazine@gmail.com or by letter to the Editor at Llandaff Cathedral Administration Office, Cardiff CF5 2LA. We're waiting to hear from you...!!
