EASTER DAY

4th April 2021

Christ is risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!
He is risen indeed! Alleluia

Today's 11.15 am service is live-streamed at: www.llandaff-cathedral.live/sundayeucharist

The Collect and Readings for today

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius. 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ – he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Acts 10.34-43

Psalm 118.1-2,14-24 - This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his mercy endures for ever.

Let Israel now proclaim, 'His mercy endures for ever.'

R

The Lord is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.

There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous:

'The right hand of the Lord has triumphed!

the right hand of the Lord is exalted! the right hand of the Lord has triumphed!

R

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

The Lord has punished me sorely, but he did not hand me over to death.

Open for me the gates of righteousness; I will enter them; I will offer thanks to the Lord.

'This is the gate of the Lord; whoever is righteous may enter.'

I will give thanks to you, for you answered me and have become my salvation.

The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief corner-stone.

R

This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

On this day the Lord has acted; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

R

A reading from the first letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you – unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them – though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

1 Corinthians 15.1-11

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St John

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.' Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went towards the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' which means Teacher. Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."' Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Prayers of Intercession for this week

Jesus is alive and we can seek his help through prayer, so let us turn to him now.

We pray that God will help us to be confident about the grounds for our faith and enable us to be more effective witnesses.

We pray for those who feel God is far away;
that they will be comforted by the Easter message that Christ is alive and with us.

We pray for those facing death or who are grieving;
that Christ's resurrection will bring hope and encouragement that death is not the end.

We pray for those struggling with guilt;
that they may know this Easter that Christ has defeated sin as well as death, to bring us forgiveness.

Thank you, Lord, that you are with us and hear our prayers.
We ask all these things through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Cathedral News

The Cathedral Clergy, staff and Chapter members wish you all a very Happy Easter.

The late Miss Mary Wines: it is with great sadness that we note the death of Miss Mary Wines. Her funeral will take place in the Cathedral on Wednesday 7th April at 12 noon. We offer our condolences to Miss Jean Wines.

Telephone befriending scheme: our experience of lockdown has raised awareness of the dangers and widespread incidence of loneliness and isolation in our community. The Cathedral is seeking to respond to this by setting up a telephone befriending scheme in which a group of trained volunteers will make regular calls to help relieve loneliness. This is part of a national scheme Linking Lives UK. If you know anyone who would appreciate receiving a friendly phone call perhaps weekly, please let Canon Jan know. This will be available to anyone in the community and is not restricted to those with any connection to the Cathedral.

The Cathedral Annual Vestry Meeting will take place on Tuesday 27th April at 7.00 pm. It is at this meeting that the Parochial Church Council is elected and a nomination form for election to the PCC can be found at the end of these Notes. The PCC is changing somewhat in line with developments across the Diocese and the Church in Wales. Later this year its name will change to the Cathedral Community Council and in line with this we hope the Council will begin to include as wide a representation of the Cathedral's life as possible. The Cathedral Chapter is keen to re-define its link with the Council to nurture, unite and grow the Cathedral community as a whole.

Safeguarding: all members of the congregation are invited to undertake a short training and refresher course about the whole question of safeguarding. The course, provided by St Padarn's Institute has to be completed online and takes about 45 minutes. It is free and you can find information here. All our volunteers are required to complete this course and should have had information from our volunteer team leaders. If you have not heard anything, please ask the Churchwardens or the clergy.

Foodbank news – Thank you for your support, it is greatly appreciated. The crate to put food into is currently positioned near the South East door.

Information relevant to the pandemic restrictions

We display the QR code that links with the NHS Tracing App. If you have the app on your mobile device you can scan the code through the app. This means that if people visit the building and later test positive for coronavirus, other app users who were there at the same time may be sent an alert, if local public health teams think this is necessary.

Sunday Worship guidelines – a reminder....

Here are some of the key things to note:

- There are currently two services: 9.00 am and 11.15 am
- Both services are celebrations of the Holy Eucharist with the 9.00 am service catering particularly for children and families.
- Social distancing guidelines must be maintained at all times – especially before and after the services. Given that the rows are 2 metres apart, they can act as a useful guide when standing in the Nave.
- Hand sanitiser must be used on entry.
- Face-coverings: Welsh Government regulations now make the wearing of face coverings compulsory in public buildings. This includes the Cathedral.
- Everyone attending will be invited to complete a 'track and trace' card - please bring a pen!
- Communion will be administered standing and in one kind only.
- There will be no congregational singing.
- Ritual and ceremony will be kept to a minimum.
- No service sheets will be used – the order of service will be available online to print in advance and bring with you or to follow on a phone or other mobile device. They are also available through QR codes displayed at each service.

- The '2-metre distance' rule means that the capacity of the Cathedral will be between 80 and 90 individuals although family groups sitting together will legitimately increase the number.
- 5 cathedral chairs must be left clear between households.

Please note that there will be a legal maximum capacity number and it may be necessary to impose restrictions on entry to ensure that number is not exceeded.

The Welsh Government, the Church in Wales and the Diocese have all produced and issued protocols and detailed instructions to clergy and parishes. We are following them all.
