The NATIVITY of OUR LORD

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Saturday 25th December 2021

8.00 am

Welcome to the Cathedral!

It is now a legal requirement to wear a face covering during worship unless you have a recognised / acknowledged reason not to wear one.

Hand sanitiser is available at the west door and at the south east door.

You can help us to keep everyone safe, by voluntarily completing a card with your contact details (one per household). This will enable us if necessary, to implement the 'track and trace' guidelines.

You may print this order of service or follow it on a mobile device - if you are using a 'phone or tablet please ensure the sound is switched off.

Please stand as the Procession enters the Cathedral.

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

The central candle on the Advent Wreath is lit.

Blessed are you, sovereign Lord,
to you be praise and glory for ever.
The light of your incarnate Word gives gladness to our hearts, and consolation to the world.
Fill our lives with your light and truth,
until they overflow with gladness and praise.
Blessed be God for ever.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

We sit or kneel

Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father,
We have sinned against thee,
in thought and word and deed,
and in what we have left undone.
We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.
Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
forgive us all that is past;
and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Priest says

Almighty God have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS

Glory be to God on high,
and in earth peace, goodwill towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.
For thou only art Holy; thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Spirit, art Most High in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD

THE COLLECT

Almighty God, you have given us your only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him and as at this time to be born of a pure virgin: grant that we, who have been born again and made your children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by your Holy Spirit: through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness – on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onwards and for evermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Isaiah 9. 2 - 7

PSALM 96

O sing unto the Lord a new song:
sing unto the Lord, all the whole earth.

Sing unto the Lord, and praise his name:
be telling of his salvation from day to day.

Declare his honour unto the nations:
and his wonders unto all people.

For the Lord is great and highly to be praised:
he is more to be feared than all gods.

For all the gods of the nations are but idols
but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

Glory and majesty are before him:
power and honour are in his sanctuary.

Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye families of the peoples:
ascribe unto the Lord honour and power.

Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his name:
bring offerings and come into his courts.

O worship the Lord in raiment of holiness:
let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

Tell it out among the nations 'The Lord is King:
it is he who hath made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
he shall judge the peoples righteously.'

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad:
let the sea roar and all that therein is.

Let the fields be joyful, and all that is in them:
yea let all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord.

For he cometh to judge the earth:
in righteousness shall he judge the world, and the peoples in his faithfulness.

THE EPISTLE

A reading from St Paul's Letter to Titus.

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Titus 2. 11 - 14

THE GOSPEL

Hear the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke Glory be to thee, O Lord.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid; for see – I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.' And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favours!' When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.' So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Luke 2. 1 – 20

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
and of all things visible and invisible.
And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made:
who for us men, and for our salvation
came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary,
and was made man,
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried,
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead:
whose kingdom shall have no end.
And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.
And I believe in One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church.
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins.
And I look for the Resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

We sit or kneel

THE INTERCESSION

Let us pray for the whole Church of Christ and for all people according to their needs.

Almighty and everlasting God, we humbly beseech thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord, that all who confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word and live in unity and godly love. Lord, in thy mercy, Hear our prayer.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops, Priests and Deacons, and specially to thy servant June our Bishop, that they may by their life and doctrine proclaim thy true and living Word and rightly and duly administer thy Holy Sacraments. Lord, in thy mercy, Hear our prayer.

To all thy people give thy heavenly grace, and specially to this congregation here present; that they may serve thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life. Lord, in thy mercy, Hear our prayer.

We beseech thee, O Lord, to direct with thy heavenly wisdom those who rule over the nations of the world, that thy people may be faithfully and justly governed; bless thy servant Elizabeth our Queen and all who exercise authority under her. Lord, in thy mercy, Hear our prayer.

Of thy goodness, O Lord, help and comfort all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, granting them a happy issue out of all their afflictions. Lord, in thy mercy, Hear our prayer.

We commend to thy gracious keeping, O Lord, all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear, beseeching thee to grant us with them everlasting light and peace. Lord, in thy mercy, Hear our prayer.

Finally, we bless thy holy Name for the grace and virtue declared in all thy Saints. Grant that we, rejoicing in their fellowship and following their good examples, may at thy Son's appearing be set with them on his right hand and be made partakers of thy heavenly kingdom.

Hear us, O heavenly Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate, to whom with thee and the Holy Spirit be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE MINISTRY OF THE SACRAMENT

Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given,
and his name shall be called the Prince of Peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you;
And with your spirit.

THE OFFERTORY

All things come of thee;
And of thine own do we give thee.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you;
And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts;
We lift them up unto the Lord.

Let us give thanks unto our Lord God;
It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Because thou didst give Jesus Christ thine only Son to be born as at this time for us, who by the operation of the Holy Spirit, was made very man of the substance of the Virgin Mary his mother; that being himself without sin he might make us clean from all sin.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praising thee and saying:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Blessed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We sit or kneel

All glory, praise and thanksgiving be unto thee Almighty God our heavenly Father, creator and sustainer of all things, maker of man in thine own image, who gavest thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him and to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption. There he made the one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his Holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memorial of that his precious death until his coming again.

Therefore we beseech thee, O merciful Father, to sanctify with thy Holy Spirit these thy gifts of Bread and Wine, that we, receiving them according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, may be partakers of his most precious Body and Blood:

Who in the same night that he was betrayed, took Bread and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,

Take, eat, this is my Body which is given for you:
Do this in remembrance of me.

Likewise after supper he took the Cup and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying,

Drink ye all of this,
for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sins:
Do this. as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, making the memorial of the blessed Passion, mighty Resurrection, and glorious Ascension, of thy dearly beloved Son as he hath commanded us, rejoicing in his gift of the Holy Spirit, and looking for his coming again with power and great glory, we thy servants, with all thy holy people, do set forth before thy Divine Majesty this Bread of eternal life and this Cup of everlasting salvation.

And we beseech thee to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and to grant to us and thy whole Church remission of our sins and all other benefits of his Passion. And we pray that all we, who are partakers of this holy Communion, may be fulfilled with thy grace and heavenly benediction and be numbered in the glorious company of thy saints.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, in whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

The Priest breaks the Bread, saying

The Bread which we break;
Is it not the communion of the Body of Christ ?

We who are many are one Bread, one Body
For we are all partakers of the one Bread.

Then may be said:

We do not presume to come to this table,
O merciful Lord,
trusting in our own righteousness,
but in thy manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy so much
as to gather up the crumbs under thy table,
but thou art the same Lord,
whose property is always to have mercy.
Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen

Then may be said

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

THE COMMUNION

As our Saviour Jesus Christ has taught we are bold to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Draw near and receive the Body of our Lord Jesus Christ given for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

The Priest receives Holy Communion and the Sacrament is administered in one kind only

The Body of Christ keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE POST-COMMUNION

All stand

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious;
For his mercy endureth for ever.

God our Father, whose Word has come among us in the Holy Child of Bethlehem: may the light of faith illumine our hearts and shine in our words and deeds; through him who is Christ the Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, we thank thee for feeding us with the Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, through whom we offer to thee our souls and bodies to be a living sacrifice. Send us out in the power of thy Spirit to live and work to thy praise and glory. Amen.

THE DISMISSAL

The Lord be with you:
And with your spirit.

Christ the sun of righteousness shine upon you and scatter the darkness from before your path and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen

Let us go forth in peace;
In the Name of Christ. Amen.

Cathedral News

The Choir at the 9am Eucharist: The Parish Choir last sang in a service in early March 2020. Since then, restrictions on rehearsal space, use of the choir stalls and other COVID guidelines surrounding amateur music making have made it difficult for the choir to return. We are delighted that a choir will sing at this morning's 9.00am for the first time and that a programme of phased return for choral music is planned. There will be differences from 18 months ago and challenges ahead for the choir, but we nevertheless rejoice that we can begin along this path. At least for the time being the choir will be split into two sections as we begin to build up the membership. The Junior Choir is for children aged 8-12 and rehearses on Mondays from 6.30-7.30pm in Prebendal House. Alongside them the more traditional Parish Choir of adults also meets to rehearse on some Monday evenings from 7.00-8.00 pm. These two groups will sometimes sing together and sometimes apart. It is our aim to build the membership of both groups over the coming weeks and months and to increase the involvement of the choir in services, but we need your help to do this! If you know of anyone who might be interested in joining either group, then please do put them in touch via stephemoore@llandaffcathedral.org.uk.

ADVENT APPEAL: a wonderful response! The official figures show that on the first three Sundays in Advent we collected no less than £1,774 for Crisis. This is a magnificent achievement, and there's one more Sunday to go, so if you haven't given already, this is your last chance. Collection buckets are at each of the main doors after the 9.00 and 11.00 services, and you can donate by cash or cheque payable to Crisis. Gift Aid envelopes are available on the Charities Table. Can we reach the £2,000 mark? It would be marvellous if so, and thank you all so much for your generous support. Sue Smith

Altar Servers: under Covid regulations, only the clergy handle the communion vessels. However, it is now possible to have a crucifer and two acolytes to lead the procession. We have a children's team of altar servers for the 9.00 am All Age Eucharist with children taking turns each week. We now hope to restore a small team for the 11.15 am service as well. Some of those involved before lockdown are still available, but not enough to form a rota as yet. Adults and teenagers who would be interested to take part in this are warmly invited to contact the clergy.

Friends of Llandaff Cathedral: If you are a Friend of the Cathedral, you should have recently received by email or post a newsletter and information on Standing Order payments. Some people have found these in Spam, so please check if you are yet to see your copy.

NEW YEAR'S DAY TOUR- MONDAY 3rd JANUARY at 10.30a.m.

The popular Friends' New Year's Day guided tour of the cathedral is back.

A good way to start the New Year, especially if you have visitors. There is always something to see that you have not noticed before!

Please tell your friends and neighbours about the tour and invite them to meet our Secretary, historian Mr Arthur Impey, inside the west end of the cathedral at 10.30 am. The tour is subject to Covid guidelines, so please bring a face covering.

PLANT A TREE FOR THE JUBILEE

In 2022, the Patron of the Friends of Llandaff Cathedral, H.M. The Queen, will celebrate 70 years as monarch and the Friends aim to mark this with the planting of 70 trees. Some of these will, we hope, be in the cathedral precincts, enhancing air quality and the environment.

We are asking members of the Friends to make the number of trees up to 70 by planting one or more trees somewhere themselves, perhaps in the garden, at work or somewhere in remembrance. Planting can begin anytime now. A tree might be just the Christmas gift you have been looking for.

The tree can be any size, and one of our North Wales members plans a rose tree in a tub, as her garden is small. Will you help, please? Let us know at friends@llandaffcathedral.org.uk and, if you would like to send us a photo of your tree, we may include it on our webpage.

Llandaff Cathedral Choristers' Association: In addition to the Cathedral Christmas Cards available from the Cathedral Shop you can also buy Christmas cards in aid of the Chorister Association. While proceeds go to the funds of the association, it is the Cathedral that benefits ultimately in that the funds help support the work of the Cathedral choirs.

'Cathedral Kids' Mother and Toddler group: We meet in Prebendal House each Wednesday of term-time from 9.30-11am. All babies and toddlers up to school age are welcome. We enjoy lots of play, chat, snacks, and a story and prayer together!

Supporting refugees: The Diocese has launched a toolkit to guide individuals and churches on how best to support the people of Afghanistan and those arriving in Wales in the coming days. It also includes some context on the schemes to welcome Afghan refugees here in Wales (which are being run and coordinated by the UK Government) and a few words on advocacy around the Borders and Nationality Bill which is currently passing through Westminster (and will be a UK-wide policy). The toolkit can be accessed here.

Orders of Service: Now that we are able to sing hymns, it is even more important for everyone to be able to access the order of service. Those who do not have access to a computer or printer at home (to print off the service from the Cathedral website and bring it along) nor to a smart phone (to use the QR code displayed in the Cathedral) are invited to request a personal printed copy. Please give your name and which service you attend (9am or 11.15am) and a named copy of the order of service will be provided for you at the back of the Cathedral each week.

The Friends of Llandaff Cathedral: Anybody interested in joining the Friends will find full details of types of membership and fees in the Friends Pages on the Cathedral website. An application for membership can also be downloaded from there. You can find out more about the Friends of Llandaff Cathedral by clicking here.

COVID-19 Guidance

The latest Church in Wales guidance for dealing with the pandemic can be found here.

Here are some of the key things to note:

- We continue to display the QR code that links with the NHS Tracing App.
- Hand sanitiser must be used on entry.
- Face-coverings remain compulsory in public buildings. This includes the Cathedral.
- Everyone attending will be invited to complete a 'track and trace' card.
- Communion will be administered standing and in one kind only.
- Ritual and ceremony will continue to be kept to a minimum.
- No service sheets will be used – the order of service will be available online to print in advance and bring with you or to follow on a phone or other mobile device. They are also available through QR codes displayed at each service.
